JOHNSON VICTOR IN LEAGUE OF NATIONS DISPUTE

CONVENTION MEETS 13 MINUTES, ADJOURNS TO 4 P.M.

DELEGATES TAKE RECESS TO AWAIT FINAL REPORT OF PLATFORM BUILDERS

No Nominating Speeches Expected Until Draft Acted Upon When Orators Will Get Front of Stage

THRONG BLESSED BY CARDINAL

(By Associated Press)

COLISEUM, CHICAGO, June 10.—While awaiting the report of the platform committee the Republican national convention held a thirteen-minute session this morning, and much to the disappointment of the galleries took a recess until 4 o'clock this afternoon.

When the convention assembled the platform committee was engaged in the struggle over the plank on the peace treaty and it looked as if much time might be lost.

There was a consideration of plans to go ahead with nominating speeches while awaiting the platform report, but there was objection to that and it was abandoned.

While the convention managers were debating what to do, the word came from down town that the platform sub-committee had agreed on a report and a few minutes later Senator McCormick of Illinois, one of the sub-committee members, appeared on the speakers' platform and announced that an unanimous agreement had been reached by the sub-committee which promised union of the party and victory in November

RECESS TO 4 O'CLOCK MEETS WITH FAVOR

McCormick presented a motion for a recess until 4 o'clock, but there was a roar of ayes and noes from the delegates and galleries, and Chairman Lodge was compelled to call for a standing vote on which he decided that the majority wanted the recess

The resolutions committee fight down town was a bigger show than the convention itself and there were prospects of a small house. The band and the songsters went through the motions of attempting to amuse the delegates and visitors while they awaited the opening hour. The sun was beating down mercilessly and giving forewarning of a sweltering day.

Cardinal Gibbons, who offered the prayer, was among the early arrivals A committee escorted the primate to the platform, and as the delegates and visitors caught a glimpse of his red cap and sash a ripple of applause swept the hall.

The venerable cardinal, gowned in high flowing red robe and his gray head crowned by his red cap, made a striking figure as he stood under the snow-white sounding board. He looked over the audience as he delivered his prayer and closed with the Lord's prayer, as did the Episcopal clergyman who led the convention in prayer yesterday.

Immediately at the conclusion of the prayer Senator McCormick of the sub-committee on resolutions took the platform and reported that the committee had agreed on a platform, which would make for union among Republicans, which would make for victory in November.

"I have to report that the committee has unanimously agreed upon a platform including a paragraph dealing with the treaty of peace," he shouted to the convention, while a roar of cheers and applause greeted his announcement.

It would be necessary, he explained, for the sub-committee to perfect its draft and submit it to the full committee which would consider it "line by line"

CHAIRMAN CALLS FOR RISING VOTE

There was a roar of noes from all parts of the hall at the proposal for adjournment. Senator Lodge put the motion for adjournment and got a roar of ayes and a wave of noes.

"The chair is in doubt," said Senator Lodge and he asked for a rising vote.

On that showing the chairman announced the convention in recess until 4 o'clock.

G. O. P. Shies From Radical Stand On Prohibition Issue

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, June 10.—Under the leadership of William Allen White of Kansas, the sub-committee last night rejected a proposal to cover the prohibition issue under a general declaration for maintenance of law and order.

White denounced this a "mere subterfuge."

He then offered a resolution declaring for the enforcement of the eighteenth amendment to the constitution and all laws enacted thereunder, which was lost 6 to 5.

White said today he had not lost hope of ultimate success and would continue his fight for an affirmative declaration either by the 'sub' or full committee.

'Here Is My Will, Am Going Away,' Note By Wife

Young Matron Vanishes With Infant; Suicide of Another Hinted

"Here is my last will and testament, properly made out and signed. I am tired of it all and am going away. "ESTELLE"

This was the note which the family of Mrs. Estelle Himes, 9827 Plymouth street, Oakland, found last night on a table in their home. There was no trace of Mrs. Himes and a frantic search of the house and neighborhood failed to find her.

The matter was immediately taken up with the police by the husband of the woman, Charles Himes A rigid investigation last night failed to disclose the slightest inkling of the movements of the missing woman since she wrote the note and left her home

The will was found to be made out in legal form and left to her family some property she possessed.

That the lure of the footlights, which fascinated 18-year-old Mrs. Margaret Josephine de Vecchi several years before her marriage, allured her from her husband, and with her four-months'-old baby, to seek once more her old profession, is the belief of her young husband, who reported the disappearance of his wife and baby to the Oakland police last night.

The family lives at 1151 Polk street, San Francisco, but de Vecchi believes his wife to be in Oakland, where she was formerly employed in a theater prior to her marriage.

Palmer Rule Shifts Pocket Veto Status

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Attorney General Palmer has made an informal ruling which has been communicated to President Wilson that the chief executive has ten days after the adjournment of Congress in which to sign bills and resolutions. This ruling may change the status of a number of bills which the president killed by a "pocket veto," explaining that he had not had sufficient time in which to consider them. These measures include the water power bill and the resolution repealing most of the special war-time legislation.

Col. E. M. House to Make Trip Abroad

WASHINGTON, June 10.—It is learned here that Colonel E M. House had applied for passports and that he contemplated leaving for Europe at an early date.

NEW YORK, June 10.—A representative of the Associated Press called at Colonel House's apartment here and asked him if it was true that he contemplated going abroad and whether his trip had any official significance.

"I am going to Europe on purely personal matters," said Colonel House, "in accordance with my long time habit and I am not going in an official capacity of any sort whatsoever."

BERKELEY'S WATERFRONT PURCHASED

Confirming the articles printed exclusively in The TRIBUNE more than a year ago and which were then denied, Rufus P. Jennings announced today that negotiations which were then in hand for the purchase by the California Pacific Investment company of the holdings of the Berkeley Water Front company had now been consummated. The sale price of the properties, which involve the site of immense commercial developments on the Berkeley waterfront, is $750,000.

The deal, which was made through the agency of Wickham Havens, Incorporated, transfers land held for twenty years by the late Frank C. Havens, John H Spring and his son, Wickham Havens. Upon it is to be erected the first unit of one of the most extensive harbor development enterprises ever undertaken on the Pacific Coast

PLANS CONTEMPLATE BIG IMPROVEMENT.

If plans contemplated for the improvement of the lands purchased by the Jennings Corporation are carried to fruition the Berkeley waterfront will be given an industrial, commercial and transportational importance of considerable magnitude, and the entire San Francisco bay section will share in the prosperity to result.

Preliminary arrangements are in progress for the construction on these lands, and on adjoining lands leased from the city of Berkeley, of a system of channels and wharves and of ship and rail terminal facilities for the accommodation of commerce passing the Golden Gate and for the accommodation of the large number of warehousing, commercial and industrial concerns now looking for suitable locations.

The engineering plans have been made by Messrs B. F. Cresson Jr. and Charles W. Staniford, well known harbor engineers of New York City. Cresson is consulting engineer for the New York-New Jersey Port and Harbor Development Commission. Staniford, for thirteen years, was chief engineer, department of docks and ferries of New York. They will continue to be consulting engineers for the Pacific port terminal during construction

INCORPORATED TEN YEARS AGO

About ten years ago the Berkeley Waterfront Company was incorporated as a holding company and the nominal title to these lands has rested with it since that time Over a year ago Jennings opened negotiations for the acquisition of this holding through the office of Wickham Havens, Incorporated, the latter carrying through the transaction with the result that documents closing the sale were recorded this morning.

Prospects of Johnson Are Hurt by Idle Rumors of Bolt If Not Nominated

By JOSEPH R. KNOWLAND,
Publisher of The TRIBUNE

CONVENTION HALL, June 10.—The agreement by sub-committee on resolutions is a complete victory for Johnson. Senator Borah has just declared that draft meets his entire approval. In a statement Senator Johnson announces that a victory has been won in the fight he has waged for Americanism.

There is some danger that the leaders have made this concession to hold Johnson in line and will now make a determined effort to unite on some other candidate. Concessions are dangerous and may result in the convention getting away from the program they seek to put through.

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago, June 10.—This convention fears Senator Johnson. The leaders do not want to nominate him and neither do they relish having the Californian dictate the platform plank dealing with the league of nations Rumors of all kinds reach me on this the third day of the convention Wood is making some gains and the name of Governor Sproul of Pennsylvania is more frequently mentioned New York has refused to adopt the unit rule in voting the delegation

I wish I might speak more hopefully today of Senator Johnson's chances, but it seems most difficult for him to break into the big eastern delegations. We have all tried but with little success. Old time Republicans are obdurate.

THIRD PARTY REPORTS WORRYING JOHNSON.

The talk of over-enthusiastic friends and newspapers that the Californian will head a third ticket is unfortunate, although, let it be said to the credit of the senator that he frowns upon such foolish talk and has reiterated the position previously announced that this is a family affair and must be settled within the party.

Attempts are being made to take from Johnson some of the delegates in states where he won in a fair and open appeal before the people. In some of these states the delegations were selected in part by rivals of the Californian but the vote of the people favored his candidacy This makes a peculiar situtiion.

Yesterday Senator Johnson issued a warning to these delegates that will probably cause them to pause before they desert his banner. A similar situation in other states is worrying both Wood and Lowden. While old-time leaders are opposing Johnson there are many delegates who hail from close states and their chief thought is for party success, recognizing Johnson's strength before the people. The swinging of big states into line for other candidates is likely to start a stampede.

I have been surprised at the little sentiment manifested for the Wilson League, even with reservations, and apparently the fight before the committee on resolutions on the part of those opposing the Johnson program is more to endorse the action of senators who supported the league with the Lodge reservations than to favor the covenant, and it is all due to the fact that President Wilson insists on making the instrument a campaign issue. The situation is unfortunate in the opinion of many Americans who had hoped for some workable plan for preventing future wars.

Johnson's persistent fight kept the

VICTORY FOR ALL PEOPLE: SEN. JOHNSON

CHICAGO, June 10 (By Associated Press)—Senator Johnson talked with newspaper men while waiting details of the reported agreement on a treaty plank He repeated his statement that as already reported to him, the settlement was "a tremendous victory for Americanism, and an overwhelming defeat for internationalism and international bankers."

"You realize that there are certain international bankers here determined not alone to write a platform for the Republican party, but also to nominate its president," he said. "They have been whipped on the first object; it is to be hoped they will be defeated on the second.

"I am told that the matter has been settled; that no decision has been made favorable to the League of Nations, and that the platform will declare for American foreign policies in harmony with those of Washington and Monroe. I understand there is no mention of the league in the plank"

After outlining his position the senator was asked if the settlement meant that he would not attend the convention.

"If I have been correctly informed of the situation I probably will not attend," he replied "If it is not settled in that way I will go to the convention."

"That disposes of the question of a bolt or third party?" asked someone. He brushed aside the inquiry with further comment on the character of the fight that he had been making and a declaration that the "party of Lincoln must continue as the party of the plain people"

Washington-Wheat Increase Forecast

SEATTLE, June 10.—Washington's wheat crop this year will be almost 9 000,000 bushels greater than in 1919, according to G S Ray, field agent for the United States department of agriculture, today. He estimated this state's crop at 42,880,000 bushels for this year Washington's apple crop is estimated at 17,056,000 bushels compared with $18,136,000 bushels last year.

ROW ON TREATY PLANK ENDED BY COMPROMISE DRAWN BY ELIHU ROOT

Position of Senate Is Upheld and Way Cleared for New Pact Free Of Objections in Wilson League

VICTORY CLAIMED BY JOHNSON

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, June 10.—A League of Nations plank declared by leaders to be "acceptable to everybody" was unanimously adopted today by the Republican resolutions sub-committee, apparently ending all threat of a party split over the league issue.

The compromise plank was described by Senator Borah as establishing these three principles for which the irreconcilables had contended:

Omission of any pledge for ratification.

Commendation of the Senate for refusing to ratify.

A statement that any future league must be in accord with American ideals and the principles of Washington.

The plank upholds the Senate in refusing to ratify the treaty of Versailles, declares that any future international peace understanding must square with American traditions and omits the affirmation declaration for a league which had been urged by the mild reservationists.

Originally drafted weeks ago by Elihu Root, the plank was revised at an all-night series of conferences and was adopted by the sub-committee after Senator Lodge had appeared in the committee room and declared if the mild reservation proposal were accepted he would go on the convention floor and fight it.

NEW PLANK ACCEPTABLE TO ALL FACTIONS

The plank was said by the sub-committee members to be wholly acceptable to former Senator Crane of Massachusetts, leader for the mild reservation group, and its acceptance removed the only obstacle to speeding to a conclusion the work of the national convention. The completed platform was to be taken to the convention floor late in the afternoon and it was said a night session might be called to begin the hearing of nomination speeches.

Shortly before noon, the work of the sub-committee was completed and members said they thought there would be no barrier to a prompt acceptance of its platform draft by the full resolutions committee.

While the plank accepted was drafted originally by Root, it was said that some modifications had been made in the pre-convention conferences of the leaders and in the meeting this morning Root is in Europe

The agreement came as suddenly today as did yesterday's crisis, when the irreconcilables made an open threat to leave the party if the plank offered by Senator Crane indorsing the league with reservations were adopted.

BORAH IS FINALLY WON OVER TO DRAFT

Mills and Senator Smoot caught Senator Borah just as he was entering the sub-committee room, and the three sat down on a couch outside and put their heads together over the Root proposition. Mills took the lead in urging the Idaho senator to accept

At first Senator Borah was obdurate though he said the principle was acceptable Pressed for an acceptance, he protested that no one was more anxious than he for harmony, reminding his conferees that an agreement would mean as much to him personally as to any man in the convention.

Encouraged, Senator Smoot and Mills took Senator Borah to a nearby room where they were joined by Senator Lodge and Senator McCormick of Illinois, another irreconcilable member of the sub-committee. In fifteen minutes the agreement had been reached and within the half hour the Root plank had been given unanimous approval by the sub-committee.

It is understood that in touching up the literary polish of the plank Colonel George Harvey helped the sub-committee members. Senator Lodge also helped, remaining in the sub-committee session while it put on the finishing touches.

After the agreement, Senator Borah said the compromise of the sub-committee would be given to the full committee within an hour with every prospect of approval and that it was planned to present the completed platform to the convention at 4 o'clock.

While the Root plank commends the Senate's rejection of the Versailles covenant, it is understood to contain a provision expressing in general terms the party's approval of some international concert for peace. It was that feature, it was said, which led the mild reservationists to accept it.

EFFECT ON CANDIDATES DISCUSSED IN LOBBIES

News of the agreement started lively speculation among the Wall Street Beaten in First Attack, Says Sen. Johnson

CHICAGO, June 10.—Senator Johnson declared that in the contest over the platform section on the League of Nations the "first assault of internationalism and international bankers on the Republican party had been met and defeated." It had been charged by the Johnson-Borah group that the Crane plank "had its birth in Wall street."

There would be a "second assault" by the same forces, Senator Johnson asserted, with the object of nominating a candidate, which he "hoped would be met and defeated," but he added that if the reports on the platform decision reaching him were correct, he would not take his league fight to the convention floor.

chances of any presidential candidate would be aided or injured by the adjustment. The generally expressed first impression was that it would affect none of them except perhaps Senator Johnson. He immediately hailed it as a victory for the principles he had advocated, but it was pointed out that it probably would remove the opportunity which many delegates thought he wanted for impassioned debate on the subject on the convention floor.

Lowden, Wood, Butler and Harding headquarters refused to issue any statement at once on the plank. It was said that Governor Lowden might have something to say later in the day, but General Wood's managers were inclined to think their candidate would remain silent

WATCHFUL WAITING OF WILSON IS CONDEMNED.

The tentative draft also condemned President Wilson's Mexican policy, declared no Mexican regime should be recognized unwilling and unable to give adequate guarantees for protection of American rights and pledged the Republican party to "A consistent, firm and effective policy towards Mexico that shall enforce respect for the American flag" and protect American citizens and property.

There was no direct mention of interference in Mexico, but it was declared that the party should stand for "insistence upon the maintenance of order" in Mexico. The proposal for a mandate over Armenia was condemned and the action of Congress in passing a peace resolution approved.

Other tentative planks include an industrial relations declaration from which reference to anti-strike legislation had been omitted, a plank blaming the depreciation of money values for the high cost of living; one opposing government ownership, or operation of railroads, and one expressing in general terms, without mention of a cash bonus, the gratitude and generosity of the party to former service men.

OPPOSITION TO PLAN OF MANDATE IN ARMENIA

The mandate for Armenia is condemned in this manner. "We condemn President Wilson for asking Congress to empower him to accept a mandate for Armenia. We commend the Republicans for refusing the President's request to empower him to accept a mandate for Armenia. The acceptance of such mandate would throw the United States into the very maelstrom of European quarrels According to the estimate of the Harbord commission organized by authority of President Wilson we would be called upon to send 59,000 American boys to police Armenia and to expend

MAXINE DEMPSEY TELLS COURT OF LIFE WITH BOXER

By FRANK G. MENKE

Though a bit groggy from yesterday's legal blows administered through rulings of Judge M. T. Dooling, Uncle Sam in the role of opponent to Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, was still in the ring today and succeeded in landing several blows at the pugilist's defense against slacker charges.

Maxine Cates Dempsey, divorced wife of the champion, today was permitted to testify that from June, 1917, to November, 1917, she received no money or support from Dempsey.

Every word of her testimony today was fought by the defense. Every question was objected to on the grounds that its admission was incompatible with the ruling of Judge Dooling yesterday that to all legal intents and purposes she was the wife of the champion and therefore could not testify as to confidential communications between herself and Dempsey.

WITHOUT FUNDS, CLAIM.

She told of their marriage in October, 1916, and their married life thereafter. In June, 1917, she declared Dempsey left her "flat" in Seattle, she having only a railroad ticket, fifty cents in money, one suit of clothes and three kimonos at the time. She went to Yakima, Wash., and there entered upon a life of shame which she pursued, she said, at various points, including St. Louis and Cairo, Ill.

In November, 1917, she returned to Seattle and Dempsey, she told the jury, sent her first $20, then $25, and later $15 and a railroad ticket to Salt Lake.

LETTERS ARE BARRED.

She testified that on one occasion during their married life at the Gibson Hall hotel, San Francisco, Dempsey exhibited his prowess as a mauler by dislocating her jaw. This was at variance with the testimony yesterday of a physician who attended her. She told him she had fallen downstairs, he testified.

Colonel Thomas, assistant United States district attorney, climaxed his direct examination of Maxine Dempsey by an attempt to introduce the much contested letters from Dempsey to his wife which are alleged to contain damaging admissions on the part of the defendant. Two of the letters were submitted to Judge Dooling who, after looking them over, ruled that they came under the classification of "confidential communications" between husband and wife and therefore were not admissable.

Republican Record in Last Congress Is Given Approval

COLISEUM, CHICAGO, June 10.—The proposed first platform plank before the sub-committee dealing with the record of the Republican Congress "despite the unconstitutional and dictatorial course of President Wilson and the partisan obstruction of the Democratic minority," was made public here by Senator McCormick of Illinois.

WILSON CRITICISED.

The plank follows:

Despite the unconstitutional and dictatorial course of President Wilson and the partisan obstruction of the Democratic minority in Congress, the Republican majority adopted a program of constructive legislation which in great part has been nullified by the vindictive vetoes of the President.

It met the problem presented by the administration's unreadiness to resume the tasks of peace, which was only equaled by its unreadiness to take up the burden of war. The Republican majority sought to repeal a great part of the vexatious war legislation which invades the liberties of the citizens, that was thwarted by a Presidential veto. It enacted the transportation act and made possible the rehabilitation of the railroad system or the country, wrecked by the McAdoo Railroad Administration.

WAGE BOARD DELAY.

Under the act it provided for the peaceful arbitrament of wage disputes, which was so nullified by the President's delay in appointing the wage board created under the provisions of the law, that he himself precipitated the outlaw railroad strike.

The Republican majority stopped the flood of public treasure recklessly poured into the lap of an inept shipping board, and laid the foundations for the creation of a great American merchant marine, to be owned and operated by the private enterprise of American citizens, under the American flag and under the control of the government of the United States.

The Republicans in Congress took from a wasteful and incompetent [illegible] graph and telephone lines of the country and returned them to private ownership, which can use them neither for the purpose of political espionage upon the citizens of the country.

BETTER POSTAL PAY.

The Republican majority reduced the cost of postage to the people and increased the wage of the drivers and underpaid employees of the postal service. Carrying out its purpose to care for the faithful employees of the government the Republican Congress enacted a law to provide pensions for superannuated and retired civil servants. It likewise provided for an increase in the pay of sailors and soldiers of the United States and further provided for a reorganization of the army on a peace footing, and for the maintenance of a powerful and efficient navy.

Recognizing the increased number of women wage-earners drawn into industry by the war and by modern social and economic developments, the Republican congress established by law for the first time a women's bureau to aid the states to safeguard the welfare of women in industry and to raise the standards of their employment.

WAY FOR SUFFRAGE.

It submitted to the country the Constitutional amendment for the enfranchisement of women, while twenty-nine Republican Legislatures out of a total of thirty-five have contributed to the ratification of the amendment. The Republican Congress enacted legislation for the relief of the consumers of print paper, which was vetoed. It provided for an extension of the powers of the government under he food control act and for the enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution. It broadened the scope of the war risk act for the suport of the more gravely injured; it made provision for the dwindling number of aged veterans of the Civil War, and made practical the vocational rehabilitation of those injured in the great war as well as for the vocational rehabilitation of those who have been injured and maimed in industry.

OIL LEASING BILL.

The Republican majority sought not only to meet the immediate economic needs of the country, but to pave the way for a greater program of social and economic reconstruction when the people shall have charged it with responsibility for the executive as well as the legislative branch of the government. It passed oil leasing and water power bills to unlock for the public good and through private enterprise long pent up resources of the country.

As the majority in Congress has sought to open the cannels of production, so has it sought to check the profligacy of the Administration, to realize upon the assets of the government, and to husband the revenues derived from taxation.

The Republican majority in the last Congress and the Republican majority in the present Congress cut the estimated expenditure sought by the Wilson administration by over $2,000,000,000. The Republican majority provided for the disposition of the surplus war material. It enacted a budget law which the President vetoed because he alleged that it withdrew from him something of absolute executive prerogative. The reserve act was amended to vest in the reserve board and reserve banks a discretion to encourage the production of essentials for the use of the common people; to permit banks to lend needed assistance to farmers who have been so gravely discriminated against by the present Democratic administration and to facilitate the development of the export trade.

New legislation was passed for the incorporation of banking companies to be specially engaged in that business. Finally, the House of Representatives and the Senate each adopted amendments to the rules at the obsolete and irresponsible committee system which despite Democratic plataform pledges, that party had always refused to reform.

PROPOSED TREATY PLANK OF BORAH IS MADE PUBLIC

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

CHICAGO, June 10.—The "irreconcilable" plank for which Senators Borah, Johnson and McCormick declared they had the votes to force through the convention, declaring unalterably against the league of nations, was today made public through the International News Service.

The plank approves the action of the senate in refusing to ratify the treaty embracing the "super state of Versailles." It declares participation opposition to America's participation [illegible] that proposed by Wilson. It demands the restoration of peace, and declares unwavering allegiance to "the policies originally associated by the fathers of the republic."

Washington and Monroe are not specifically mentioned.

It endorses the principle of arbitration and adheres to such a policy as outlined in the act of congress passed August 20, 1916, calling upon the president at the close of the war to call together the representatives of foreign governments to formulate a plan for the establishment of a tribunal or court of arbitration.

TEXT OF PLANK.

The tex. of the plank follows in part:

"We approve of the action of the senate in preventing the ratification of the treaty of peace submitted by the president and we declare continuing opposition to America's participation in any league of nations such as that proposed by him, which impairs in the slightest degree the sovereignty of independence of the United States.

"We adhere faithfully to the foreign policies originally enunciated by the fathers of the republic and maintained successfully to the inestimable advantage of our country and of the world from the inauguration of the republic to the present day. We demand the restoration of peace.

"Twice the president had an opportunity to obtain ratification of the treaty. Twice he put it aside because he would not accept reservations designed solely to safeguard the rights acquired by America through the war of independence. Finally in a contemptuous and insulting communication he vetoed a joint resolution of the congress requiring him to initiate negotiations for the ending of a technical state bf war which ceased to exist in fact eighteen months ago.

RESTORE AMITY.

"We pledge the incoming Republican administration not only to prompt restoration of amity between our own and all other nations, but also no less insistently to the making of agreements among those nations designed to preserve peace for all time, a peace based upon justice determined by law instead of by discussion and force as provided by the treaty of Versailles. Such a policy was defined in Congress in an act of August 20, 1912, in these words:

[illegible] policy of the United States to adjust and settle its international disputes through mediation or arbitration to the end that the war may be honorably avoided. It looks with apprehension and disfavor upon a general increase of armament throughout the world but it realizes that no single nation can disarm and that without a common agreement upon the subject, every considerable power must maintain a relative standing in military strength. In view of these premises the President is authorized and requested to invite, at the appropriate time, not later than the close of the war in Europe, all the great governments of the world to send representatives to a conference which shall be charged with the duty of formulating a plan for a court of arbitration or other tribunal, to which disputed questions between nations shall be referred for adjudication and peaceful settlement, and to consider the question of disarmament and to submit recommendations to their respective governments for approval.'

WILSON IGNORES LAW.

"The President attaches his signature to this declaration but has ignored the request entirely and has substituted a scheme of his own which is in utter variance with the plan thus outlined which, in common with both political parties and the whole country, he then favored.

"The policy initiated by the Congress continues to be the policy of the Republican party. We believe that the purpose then and now in mind can be attained without compromising our international independence, without depriving the people of the United States in advance of the right to determine for themselves what is just and fair when the occasion arises, and without involving them as participants other than as peace makers in a multitude of quarrels, the merits of which they are unable to judge.

"We rejoice, therefore, in the effort now making among other nations to effectuate perpetual peace upon the sound and durable basis of international law and justice among peoples as among individuals and we regard it as a good omen that, at this moment when we registered our approval, one of the greatest statesment of any time is on his way to participate in the great undertaking, clearly designed to supersede the ill-conceived and ill-constructed superstate of Versailles, whose abortiveness is already conceded.

BOLSHEVIKI RULE U.S. DENTIST POOR STAGEHAND

LONDON, June 10.—How an American dentist, Dr. Lambie, one of the best known in the profession in Moscow, was compelled to do scene shifting by the Bolsheviks, but failed to please them, was told to an Associated Press correspondent by Robert Wale, a returned British hostage from Moscow. Wale had a fortune of $25,000, but arrived here penniless.

He says that Dr. Lambie, after being imprisoned, was afterward released to do some scene shifting in the Moscow theater. In a particular play there was to be the scene of a tree struck down by lightning.

Being unaccustomed to such work, Dr. Lambie felled the tree before the lightning struck it, and, in consequence of this mistake, was taken back to prison again.

HARBOR DREDGING MONEY IS VOTED

After a denial by an official of the American Dredging company that the concern's bid for the re-dredging of the inner harbor along the quay wall is excessive, the city council this morning passed an ordinance appropriating $32,000 for the work and a resolution approving the bond of the company for its contract.

A lengthy hearing of the issue was held before the council prior to the decision, as a result of the statement made at yesterday's council meeting by Commissioner William J. Baccus that he had informtion which led him to believe that the work could be done for 5 cents per cubic yard instead of the 32 cents that is to be paid by the city under the proposed contract.

N. R. Harris, an official of the American Dredging company, appeared this morning to offer testimony on the contract and the requirements of the work, in answer to a request served upon him yesterday.

Under examination by Commissioner Soderberg, under whose direction the work is to be done, Harris told the council thata no official or employee of the company, within his knowledge, had been authorized to make the statement that the work could be done for the lower price, and that in his opinion no one had made the statement.

"Then your statement is untrue, Mr. Baccus?" asked Commissioner Soderberg, at the conclusion of Harris' testimony.

"I never said that any official of the company made the statement to me that the work could be done for 5 cents," replied Commissioner Baccus.

"Neither you nor Commissioner Baccus knows anything about this work," said Commissioner Soderberg to Mayor Davie.

"Who are you talking to?" asked [illegible] was no reply and the threatened tense situation did not develop.

They were married March 22, 1913, and separated Februaray 2, last, when Cropper went to Toledo, where he is an electrical engineer. There are no children. Mrs. Cropper, who was Elinor Hall prior to her marriage, is living with her mother at 1215 Shattuck avenue, Berkeley.

TWO CITIES ARE BEING SOUGHT IN WATER PROGRAM

Efforts to bring the cities of Emeryville and Piedmont into the water program, if the plan under consideration embodying the purchase of the distributing system of the East Bay Water Company is adopted, will be made by the committee of mayors and councilmen of the Eastbay cities, according to an announcement of Mayor John L. Davie of Oakland this morning.

In his statement the mayor further intimated that the plan determined on at a meeting of the committee of officials yesterday probably will be adopted regardless of the opposition of Mayor J. N. Long of Richmond. In that event, the cities of Oakland, Berkeley, and Alameda, will proceed on the program suggested, with the probable co-operation of Piedmont and Emeryville, he said.

"While the plan that we have tentatively adopted," said Mayor Davie today, "may not meet with general approval, it is decidedly a step in the right direction and the first logical move to be made by the cities of the Eastbay in the water situation."

Further discussion of the plan proposed yesterday, under which each of the Eastbay municipalities will hold a bond election to purchase its portion of the water company's distributing plant, as the first step in the water issue, was opened this afternoon at a meeting at 3 o'clock of the special committee consisting of the mayor and one councilman from each of the four chief Eastbay cities, and a subsequent joint session at 4 o'clock of the water commission of the Eastbay cities and the four city councils.

At yesterday's meeting of the committee of mayors and councilmen Mayor Long of Richmond offered the only opposition to the program on which the officials of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda were agreed. According to the statement of Mayor Davie today, the three cities which are united on the plan will probably proceed as a unit without Richmond if that city still maintains its stand against the plan.

Nero Introduced Spectacles In Rome

History records that the famous Roman Emperor viewed the gladiatorial contests with the aid of a large emerald lens. This is very plausible as Nero was probably afflicted with some congenital infirmity causing a near-sighted condition which would be materially improved by the use of a convex emerald lens.

No matter what the character of your visual defect may be, any of the Chinn-Beretta stores with their modern equipment can duplicate your lenses with a minimum of time and expense.

First National Corrals Big Stars

Signalizing its amazing growth until it now practically embraces the greatest screen stars, producers and writers, the First National Exhibitors' League, of which the T. and D. theater of this city is a unit, presents an interesting story to a public that is now worshiping at the shrine of its favorites

The First National Exhibitors' League was organized to protect the exhibitor, star, producer and writer alike; bring them to a co-operative basis and divide the profits among those to whom the emoluments of success were due

The league has succeeded Today it numbers 65,000 exhibitors, of which the Turner and Dahnken houses of this state are the biggest stockholders. It embraces the greatest stars producers and writers in the country.

NOTABLE PRODUCERS

The producers are headed by D W Griffith, Mack Sennett, Harry Lehrman, Marshall Neilan and Joseph Schenk, the writers by John Emerson, Anita Loos Robert W Chambers, Louis B Mayer, Owen Johnson and other novelists

Franchise holders in the First National pay according to the pro rata of their district, which is governed by population. For instance New York must give 14 per cent to the aggregate

Sub-franchises allow the little producers in any city, town or territory to come into the benefits of the co-operative system under which the First National operates.

Fred Dahnken, of the Turner and Dahnken theaters, controls the northern part of California, Nevada and the Hawaiian territory.

INTO THE FUTURE

The future holds much in store for the First National Exhibitors

The following productions are to be distributed by First National All Mayflower productions after the next Tucker and Walsh pictures have been completed; two J Parker Read Jr. productions, starring Louise Glaum, and two from Mr Read with Hobart Bosworth as the featured player, two five-reel Mack Sennett Comedies which are rapidly nearing completion; a screen picturization of the famous comedy "Twin Beds," starring Mr. and Mrs. Carter de Haven, and directed by Marshall Neilan.

By adding this stellar list of stars and directors to the previous gathering of screen celebrities who are concentrating their efforts on First National products including the Louis B Mayer productions starring Anita Stewart and Mildred Harris Chaplin, Charles Ray, Charles Chaplin, Katherine MacDonald; Marshall Neilan productions featuring Marjorie Daw; and the King Vidor all-star series, featuring Florence Vidor, one has a vast and mighty array of talent which far outnumbers in both numbers and prominence the production of any other organization

SENNETT PRODUCTIONS

Following its tryout "Married Life," the latest five part super-comedy from the Sennett Studio, is being rushed to New York to the eagerly awaiting executive committee of the First National Exhibitors' Circuit by E. M Asher, personal representative for Mack Sennett.

Among those who witnessed the preview was Sol Lesser, special west coast representative for First National, who expressed himself as highly elated over the initial release for that organization from the comedy king. Mr. Lesser stated that in his opinion "Married Life" was the most hilariously funny production that has ever been offered on the screen, and was delighted with the big cast of comics who handle the principal roles, among them being Ben Turpin, Phyllis Haver, Charlie Murray, Ford Sterling Jimmy Finlayson Kalla Pasha Eddie Gribbon and Louise Fazenda

"CURTAIN" IS NEXT

With "The Notorious Miss Lisle" ready for early release and fresh from a three weeks' vacation Katherine MacDonald, First National's American Beauty, will start production next week on "Curtain"

President Sam Rork is very jubilant over the acquisition for Miss MacDonald's third First National release, which is given its western premiere in a story

RAY IN FEATURES

Another coup of Charles Ray's the acquisition of thirteen of Charles Hoyt's most [illegible] stage plays four of James [illegible] well known poems two of which, "The Old Swimmin' Hole" and "The Girl I Loved" he expects to produce shortly. He is also anxious to produce Booth Tarkington's latest novel, "Ramsey Milholland" during the coming year Mr Ray is in the rather unique position of having all twelve of his forthcoming First National stories tentatively lined up and that organization is confident that his great success will shortly be doubled

With "Peaceful Valley" in the stage of final preparation for release as his initial First National attraction, Charles Ray is now engaged in the continuity for "45 Minutes from Broadway," probably the most popular American play ever staged, and when the cost of production and screen rights are totaled, it will shape up as one of the biggest undertakings ever attempted for the silver sheet.—Advertisement

PROBATION WON FOR HUSBAND BY PLUCK OF WIFE

ALAMEDA, June 10.—All the way from Alameda to the farthest house in North Berkeley, Mrs. Millard Cook has journeyed three times that she might plead the case of her husband, who is in jail on charges of burglary. Each time she carried her 2-months-old baby with her. As a result of her efforts it now appears that Cook will be given probation on the charge of attempting to commit burglary in an Alameda store and that there will be no prosecution for the alleged theft of an automobile in Berkeley.

Cook was arrested early on the morning of June 9, after he had been shot in the shoulder by an Alameda policeman It was charged that he and a companion had taken a car from the garage of H C Lansing, 1131 Arch street, Berkeley, and had driven it to Alameda, where they were trying to enter a grocery when surprised by the police. The other man escaped and Cook was shot as he was running away.

Mrs Cook, an attractive young woman has visited him every day and worked indefatigably in his behalf Her three trips to Berkeley were to persuade Lansing not to prosecute Twice she failed to find him at home but on the third visit was successful in her mission

According to Mrs Cook the crime is the first committed by her husband

ROAD WORK WILL BE INVESTIGATED

Investigation of the work of the California Highway Commission, its engineers, expert accountants and management to determine the cost per mile of state highway, to learn how funds have been expended and to determine whether the roads that have been built are durable or of faulty construction will be begun at once by the California State Automobile Association According to a decision reached at a meeting of the board of directors in San Francisco yesterday

Representatives of the Northern and Southern California automobile clubs, as such, were present at the meeting and offered the co-operation of their organizations in the work.

According to Secretary-Manager V E Watkins, of the state association headquarters, in San Francisco, the investigation will go into every phase of state highway work, including types of roads their resistance to traffic, the state highway accounts and the acts of the California Highway Commission and its engineers during the life of the commission

When the report has been completed by the experts of the association and has been accepted by the executive board, it will be made

Japanese Checked By Court Suits

LOS ANGELES, June 10.—The district attorneys of California devoted the second day of their annual convention in progress here to listening to addresses by various members. W W Middlecoff of Visalia spoke on [illegible] with special reference to Japanese

Middlecoff said that in Tulare county a recent move to cite numerous guardians of Japanese infants into court to show cause why they should not be removed, had checked a trend towards holding land in the names of Japanese minors, but that another scheme had been found and that Japanese were now buying lands and letting white friends hold the title. He says complete check for the practices except criminal actions

Girl Burglar Is Unconcerned as Jail Term Looms

Girl Burglar, JEAN OAKLEY, who admits almost as many crimes as she has years, and who says she does not care what they do with her.

Pretty Miss of Many Aliases Admits Crime Career and Worries Not

I don't care what they do with me.

This is the attitude toward life of pretty Jean Oakley, 22 years old as expressed today by her in the city prison, where she is being held on the charge of burglary

Possibly it was not pretty Jean Oakley who said this and other words expressing the same placid disregard of what her fate would be

It might have been pretty Jean Pollock, or Jean Vernon or Neola Fry, for the same girl is known by all these names, and she says by others, too

In any event by one or more of these names the young woman is known to the Oakland police, as well as the police of other cities as a thief, and has many times been arrested and convicted as such.

Such a record, however, she waves aside as a trifle in her mind, and discusses her career of crime as though it was a school girl prank.

"Why do I have so many names?" she repeated

NEVER USED RIGHT NAME.

"Oh I don't know It's better to have several names Sometimes the cops forget your face and it pays to be somebody else in that event I never did go by my right name. I don't think I ever shall, unless I should go home some day—back to my real home I don't care what they do with me

"They say I'm good looking Every cop in the country tells me that. But that's all the good things they ever say about me I'm bad—always have been So that's all there is to know about me So far as the world goes that's all anybody will ever know"

CHARGED BY WOMAN.

The girl was arrested yesterday and jailed on complaint of Mrs R Metcheyer, Hotel St Paul, Twelfth and Jefferson streets, who says the young woman robbed her room recently of articles valued at $100. She was arrested at Fifteenth street and San Pablo avenue yesterday evening a few minutes after she had arrived in Oakland from Bakersfield, where she fled following the alleged burglary

Miss Oakley's record, as far as local police books show, extends back to December, 1918, when she was arrested for petit larceny. She was sentenced to thirty days in the city prison by Police Judge Mortimer Smith At that time she was known as Neola Fry.

On January 7, 1919, she was arrested in Sacramento under the name of Jean Pollock, and charged with burglary The charge was reduced to petit larceny and she was turned over to the health department of that city for treatment

On January 27 of this year she was again arrested here on a charge of vagrancy She gave her name to the police as Jean Vernon She furnished $50 bail, which she forfeited She was not heard of here again until her arrest last night.

CHANCE PROVES RESISTLESS

"Why do you take a chance in stealing things when you have failed to get by with it before?" the girl burglar was asked

"I just naturally can't seem to help it I like pretty clothes and jewelry so much and when I see a chance to get them, it doesn't seem to matter just how I do get them," said the girl

She admitted freely that she had entered the room in the hotel and looted it of the clothing and jewelry.

"I couldn't use lots of it for myself; but what I couldn't make use of, I gave to my friends in Fresno and Bakersfield," said the girl burglar.

REASON SHE STEALS.

"When I come to think of it I guess that's one of the chief reasons why I steal things. I get an awful kick out of giving them away again to my friends, especially the very poor ones I have always done that—even when I was a child, so I guess it comes natural for me to take what doesn't belong to me But at the same time I don't think I'm altogether bad do you?"

"Do you depend on the burglar business for a living," the interviewer asked the girl.

"Oh, dear, no. I do lots of things, sew, trim hats fairly well, and all that. I could make a very good living. And after this I'm going to do it—honestly. I know I have a bad record, but I am hoping so much the judge will take a charitable view of it all and believe me, when I say I am going to make good from now on. Anyway, it will probably all come out in the wash some time and there's no use in worrying."

Alleged Red on Trial Asks Court to Disarm Policeman

John C. Taylor, charged with criminal syndicalism in the midst of his trial today asked Judge James G. Quinn to have Police Inspector Fenton G Thompson disarmed because a witness feared to come into court as a result of a threat by Thompson to shoot him on sight.

He said the threat referred to J E. Snyder, also indicted on syndicalist charges, and followed a charge by Snyder that Thompson had once been named as an assailant of a girl. Thompson was in court during this statement but took no part in the discussion.

Taylor demanded that his witnesses be given protection and said it would be impossible for him to present his evidence unless this were accorded them. Judge Quinn declined to have Thompson disarmed, as he is an officer of the law, but told Taylor his witnesses would have complete protection, such as is afforded every witness, and ordered the trial to proceed.

STATE OBJECTS

Deputy District Attorney A. A. Rogers, Jr., objected strenuously to the presentation of Taylor's request in the presence of the jury, saying it was done merely to prejudice the jurors.

Another vigorous dispute between Taylor and Rogers was precipitated when Taylor attempted to re-read the entire platform of the Communist Labor party, a task requiring about three hours, saying Rogers had omitted parts of it and otherwise misrepresented it when he read it.

Rogers indignantly resented what he called the impugning of his motives. Taylor said he made no such charges as it was his opinion that Rogers did not purposely distort its contents.

"Your opinion makes not the slightest difference to me" shouted Rogers. "There is as much difference between your opinion and the facts as there is between the Yukon and the Amazon rivers."

"Or between you and me!" added Taylor, with a fierce glare.

"Exactly! Between you and me!" vociferated Rogers, returning the glare with interest.

STATEMENT PROTESTED

Rogers also protested Taylor's manner of making his opening statement to the jury, declaring he was arguing instead of stating what he expected to prove.

Taylor said he would prove the police "framed" on him, in order to send him to jail and get him out of the way because of many crimes committed by them and of which he had knowledge. He said he would show that the police wantonly destroyed property in its raid on Loring hall and that what he called the "book of falsehoods or the so-called book of syndicalism" taken in the raid was "planted" there by the police.

He said the testimony of Alverson was perjury and that he had been promised immunity by Inspector Thompson. He said Thompson had to introduce Alverson's testimony not only to railroad him to prison but also, to furnish sensational matter for the newspapers. He said he would prove that he had never committed crime nor advocated its commission and that the Communist party never advocated violence. He declared the party had as much right to affiliate with foreign parties of the same sort as do chambers of commerce, fraternal orders and others.

Taylor's first witness was J. H. Dolsen, recently tried on a similar charge, the jury disagreeing. He repeated his former testimony concerning the socialist national convention and his participation therein and other activities of himself and his associates.

Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician know of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

"I think national conventions are very interesting," McAdoo said. "We are going to the Coliseum this afternoon and sit through to the end."

USING UP VITALITY

The struggle for success uses up vitality in America at a greater rate than any other thing. Fighting to keep away from the poor-house we shorten the distance to the grave.

Especially in middle age, at forty or thereabouts, do we become impressed with the necessity of laying up a competence and with that feeling in time comes worry, nervous breakdown, neurasthenia. The entire system feels the result of the nervous strain. The digestion resents things that it accepted before, the heart palpitates on slight exertion, the muscles of the back ache after a day's work. Your blood is thinner and not so bright a red.

When these things occur, whether you are fourteen or forty you need a tonic. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills suit most people's need because they are non-alcoholic and they really build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. They are useful for growing children and for men and women whose nervous energy has been overtaxed.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 60 cents a box by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Write for the free booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System."—Advertisement.

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia to Overcome Trouble—Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion.

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion."

Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and bloat right out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation and there is no sourness or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.—Advertisement.

Hair Often Ruined By Careless Washing

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at any pharmacy; it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Advertisement.

STATE NEWS

SAN RAFAEL, June 10. — The Cordelia power line of the Pacific Gas & Electric company was short circuited at 7 o'clock last night by a broken feed wire carrying a current of 60,000 volts.

When the wire fell it set fire to the E street station of the Northwestern Pacific Railway. It also halted operation of electric trains on the main line of the Northwestern Pacific, blowing out a dozen transformers and starting several grass fires.

NECK BROKEN; MAN LIVES

CHICO, June 10.—Harry Edwards, a former resident of Chico, lived for nearly four months with a broken neck—and he is still alive. Edwards' [illegible] when an automobile got beyond the control of its driver. The machine hit Edwards, crushing him against a concrete wall. Examination showed that he had a broken right leg and a broken shoulder blade. That his neck was broken was not discovered until later. Edwards formerly worked in Chico and is now in business in Aberdeen.

TULARE MUZZLES DOGS

VISALIA, June 10.—Because of the prevalence of rabies the Tulare County Board of Supervisors has adopted a stringent "dog" ordinance, following suggestions by Dr. Ross of the State Board of Health. All dogs in the county must be muzzled. Health board officials notified the county board that unless the regulations were adopted a quarantine rule against animals from this county would be declared.

HOTEL MEN ASSEMBLE

PASADENA, June 10.—The California State Hotelmen's association has opened its ninth annual convention here and will continue in session until Friday. Americanization of foreign help in hotels and the general help situation are among the subjects to be considered.

EDUCATORS RESIGN

SAN RAFAEL, June 10.— The teaching force of the San Rafael school department is practically demoralized. Superintendent of Schools Roger S. Phelps, Herbert H. Matthews, principal of the Fourth Street Grammar school, and five instructors in the San Rafael High school tendered their resignations to the Board of Education. All are effective at the close of the present school year. Insufficient salaries and the offers of better pay in other positions are the cause of all but one of the resignations. Increases of salary were asked some time ago by the teachers who resigned, but a majority of the members of the Board of Education voted against the proposed increase.

HOPS, GRAPES IN SLUMP

SANTA ROSA, June 10.—The hop market here is demoralized as a result of the supreme court decision on the dry enforcement law and offers for hops at 80 cents a pound, made prior to the decision, have been cancelled. It was said today that there may be no more buying until after the harvest. Big prices that were being offered for grapes prior to the decision also have dropped.

[illegible]

JACKSON, June 10. — James F. Parks, 42, superintendent of the Plymouth Consolidated Mine company, Ltd., died in Sacramento from appendicitis. He had been a successful manager for more than five years, and was very popular throughout the county. He leaves a mother and two sisters.

DISEASE KILLS 3000 TURKEYS

BROWNS VALLEY, June 10.—C. W. Keene, renter of the Daggert ranch, near here, lost 3000 turkeys by some mysterious disease last week—600 of the turkeys being attacked last Monday, and the remainder dying since that time. When Keene went out to his barn he found the last thirty of his turkeys dead. When the first of his turkeys died last week he called Farm Adviser Harrison, who had a state expert visit the ranch, but was unable to determine the nature of the disease which killed the birds.

Baking Pastry With Gas

Light burner for 10 minutes before pastry is ready.

Place pie tins on oven rack laid on oven bottom and commence baking with full heat.

Turn down burner in 5 or 10 minutes, according to the form of pastry and continue baking until done. An open shell can be baked with a stronger heat than a filled pie.

Pans of heavy tin or aluminum are preferable to granite or any thick ware. Sprinkling dry flour in bottom of aluminum pans is recommended.

When pie is ready to bake, it is well to press the crust in from the edge carefully so that the outer crust may not be too brown when baking is finished.

MY HEART and HUSBAND
by ADELE GARRISON

Why Madge's Plan Was Suddenly Changed.

I sprang to my feet abruptly. I felt that I could not bear another moment of the inquisition to which my friend was innocently putting me in her ignorance of the queer incidents just preceding Milly Stockbridge's death.

She had evidently told all she knew of the tragedy, and it seemed high time to change the current of her thoughts in a decided manner. Therefore I answered her query as to what I thought of Milly Stockbridge's possible legacy of hate—how well I knew the abominable thing the dead woman had planned—in almost a flippant manner.

"I think—that you're getting morbid, and that we've had enough of horrors," I said decidedly. "Come on out into the kitchen with me. I'm going to search the refrigerator and fix you a snack to eat."

"Oh, I couldn't eat a mouthful—it would choke me!" she protested, and I knew that her protest was sincere.

She had been terribly shaken by the tragedy in which she, unwittingly, was so deeply involved, but I knew that she practically had fasted since morning and was determined that she should not leave me without food of some sort.

"Well, it won't choke me," I asserted, realizing that I would have to pretend hunger myself in order to induce her to eat.

It was a dismaying prospect, in view of Katie's delicious supper, which I had just finished eating, but I hoped to be able to manage with only a pretence.

"I MUST GET HOME."

"Why, didn't you have any dinner, either?" she asked, startled, her generous impulses aflame at the thought of hardship to another person.

"Not very much," I returned. "So come on out and help me fix up something."

"But I must get home," she protested.

"Why can't you stay all night?"

"Oh, that would never do under the circumstances," she said nervously. "You see, I am almost never away from home, and if the neighbors found it out they would be sure to connect it in some way with Milly's death, and gossip about it. Of course, it is only natural, plausible, that I should come to you with the news, but I must go back home as soon as I can. Do you know when the next train goes?" And that reminds me, I haven't repaid you for that taxi. You paid him when you dismissed him, did you not?"

"Yes," I returned, with a guilty memory of my folly in having even a slight altercation with the man over the fare. "But suppose you don't bother me about it now. And don't worry about the trains. I think I'd like a cool ride tonight; it's been so sultry today. After we have something to eat I'll get a Crestinaven taxi—they're much better than ours, and take you home."

A KEY IN THE LUCK.

"Oh, I can't let you do that!" she protested, but there was no vigor in the words. I saw that she was in the condition of mind and body where initiative was almost impossible to her, and that temporary domination of her will would be an easy thing.

"Come on," I repeated cheerily, holding out my hands to her. She grasped them docilely, pulled herself to a standing posture. I slipped my arm through hers, led her to the kitchen, switched on the light and pulled the rocking chair which I provided long ago for Katie's use nearer the open window.

"Sit down here and play lazy for a bit," I commanded.

"Isn't this cosy," she commented, looking around the room, with its white curtains, its small rugs laid over the bright linoleum, its shining copper and brass and tin. "Doesn't look much like the ordinary kitchen."

"Thank you," I returned with a little glow of pride, for my kitchen is one of my hobbies. "And now for some coffee. I won't get anything that will take long, for I know you're in a hurry to get home."

"What will your husband say to your taking me home at this hour?" she asked doubtfully.

"My husband won't be home until the midnight train," I returned smiling, but with a little inward feeling of thankfulness that I would be back before Dicky's return—I dreaded the moment when I should have to tell him of Milly Stockbridge's sordid death.

And just then I heard his key in the front door!

HE WANTS TO HELP OTHERS

"I had such an awful cold," writes Russell Deckwa, 831 Chestnut St., Topeka, Kans., "and read an ad for Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. I got it and it helped me wonderfully. I believe I would have been seriously ill if I had not got it when I did. I hope this reaches others and helps them as it did me." It pays to go out of your way to get genuine Foley's Honey and Tar, for not one of the imitations is half so satisfactory in giving immediate relief from distressing, tickling coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. HUMOR PATHOS ROMANCE

O. HENRY Story a Day

The Coming-Out of Maggie

(Copyright, 1920, by Doubleday, Page & Co.; published by special arrangement with the Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

Every Saturday night the Clover Leaf Social Club gave a hop in the hall of the Give and Take Athletic Association on the East Side. In order to attend one of these dances you must be a member of the Give and Take—or, if you belong to the division that starts off with the right foot in waltzing, you must work in Rhinegold's paper-box factory. Still, any Clover Leaf was privileged to escort or be escorted by an outsider to a single dance. But mostly each Give and Take brought the paper-box girl that he affected; and few strangers could boast of having shaken a foot at the regular hops.

Maggie Toole, [illegible] dull eyes, broad mouth and left-handed style of footwork in the two-step, went to the dances with Anna McCarty and her "fellow." Anna and Maggie worked side by side in the factory and were the greatest chums ever. So Anna always made Jimmy Burns take her by Maggie's house every Saturday night so that her friend could go to the dance with them.

The Give and Take Athletic Association lived up to its name. The hall of the association in Orchard Street was fitted out with muscle-making inventions. With the fibres thus builded up the members were wont to engage the police and rival social and athletic organizations in joyous combat. Between these more serious occupations the Saturday night hops with the paper-box factory girls came as a refining influence and as an efficient screen. For sometimes the tip went 'round, and if you were among the elect that tiptoed up the dark back stairway you might see as neat and satisfying a little welter-weight affair to a finish as ever happened inside the ropes.

On Saturdays Rhinegold's paper-box factory closed at 3 p. m. On one such afternoon Anna and Maggie walked homeward together. At Maggie's door Anna said, as usual, "Be ready at seven, sharp, Mag; and Jimmy and me'll come by for you."

But what was this? Instead of the customary humble and grateful thanks from the non-escorted one there was to be perceived a high-poised head, a prideful dimpling at the corners of a broad mouth, and almost a sparkle in a dull brown eye.

"Thanks, Anna," said Maggie. "But you and Jimmy needn't bother tonight. I've a gentleman friend that's coming 'round to escort me to the hop."

The comely Anna pounced upon her friend, shook her, chided and beseeched her. Maggie Toole catch a fellow! Plain, drab, loyal, unattractive Maggie, so sweet as a chum, so unthought for a two-step or a moonlit bench in the little park. How was it? When did it happen? Who was it?

"You'll see tonight," said Maggie, flushed with the wine of the few grapes she had gathered in Cupid's vineyard. "He's swell all right. He's two inches taller than Jimmy, and an up-to-date dresser. I'll introduce him, Anna, just as soon as we get to the hall."

Anna and Jimmy were among the first Clover Leafs to arrive that evening. Anna's eyes were brightly fixed upon the door of the hall to catch the first glimpse of her friend's "catch."

At 8:30 Miss Toole swept into the hall with her escort. Quickly her triumphant eye discovered her chum under the wing of her faithful Jimmy.

"Oh, gee!" cried Anna. "Mag ain't made a hit—oh, no! Swell fellow? well, I guess! Style? Look at 'um."

"Go as far as you like," said Jimmy, with sandpaper in his voice. "Cop him out if you want him. These new guys always win out with the push. Don't mind me. He don't squeeze all the limes, I guess. Huh!"

"Shut up, Jimmy. You know what I mean. I'm glad for Mag. First fellow she ever had. Oh, here they come."

"A friend of mine, Mr. Terry O'Sullivan," was Maggie's formula of introduction. She led him around the room, presenting him to each new arriving Clover Leaf. Almost was she pretty now, with the unique luminosity in her eyes that comes to a girl with her first suitor and a kitten with its first mouse.

"Maggie Toole's got a fellow at last," was the word that went round among the paper-box girls. "Pipe Mag's floor-walker"—thus the Give and Takes expressed their indifferent contempt.

Usually at the weekly hops Maggie kept a spot on the wall warm with her back. She felt and showed so much gratitude whenever a self-sacrificing partner invited her to dance that his pleasure was cheapened and diminished. She had even grown used to noticing Anna joggle the reluctant Jimmy with her elbow as a signal for him to invite her chum to walk over his feet through a two-step.

But tonight the pumpkin had turned to a coach and six. Terry O'Sullivan was a victorious Prince Charming, and Maggie Toole winged her first butterfly flight. And though our tropes of fairyland be mixed with those of entomology they shall not spill one drop of ambrosia from the rose-crowned melody of Maggie's one perfect night.

The girls besieged her for introduction to her "fellow." The Clover Leaf young men, after two years of blindness, suddenly perceived charms in Miss Toole. They flexed their compelling muscles before her and bespoke her for the dance.

Thus she scored; but to Terry O'Sullivan the honors of the evening fell thick and fast. He shook his [illegible] through the seven motions for acquiring grace in your own room before an open window ten minutes each day. He danced like a faun; he introduced manner and style and atmosphere; his words came trippingly upon his tongue, and—he waltzed twice in succession with the paper-box girl that Dempsey Donovan brought.

Dempsey was the leader of the association. He wore a dress suit, and could chin the bar twice with one hand. He was one of "Big Mike" O'Sullivan's lieutenants, and was never troubled by trouble. No cop dared to arrest him. So, doing a tight-rope act on a wire stretched across Niagara was a safe terpsichorean performance compared with waltzing twice with Dempsey Donovan's paper-box girl. At 10 o'clock the jolly round face of "Big Mike" O'Sullivan shone at the door for five minutes upon the scene. He always looked in for five minutes, smiled at the girls and handed out real perfectos to the delighted boys.

Dempsey Donovan was at his elbow instantly, talking rapidly. "Big Mike" looked carefully at the dancers, smiled, shook his head and departed.

The music stopped. The dancers scattered to the chairs along the walls. Terry O'Sullivan, with his entrancing bow, relinquished a pretty girl in blue to her partner and started back to find Maggie. Dempsey intercepted him in the middle of the floor.

Some fine instinct that Rome must have bequeathed to us caused nearly every one to turn and look at them—there was a subtle feeling that two gladiators had met in the arena. Two or three Give and Takes with tight coat sleeves drew nearer.

"One moment, Mr. O'Sullivan," said Dempsey. "I hope you're enjoying yourself. Where did you say you lived?"

The two gladiators were well matched. Dempsey had, perhaps, ten pounds weight to give away. The O'Sullivan had breadth with quickness. Dempsey had a glacial eye, a dominating slant of a mouth, an indestructible jaw, a complexion like a belle's and the coolness of a champion. The visitor showed more fire in his contempt and less control over his conspicuous sneer. They were each enemies by the law, written when the rocks were molten. They were each too splendid, too mighty, too incomparable to divide pre-eminence. One only must survive.

"I live on Grand," said O'Sullivan, insolently, "and no trouble to find me at home. Where do you live?"

Dempsey ignored the question.

"You say your name's O'Sullivan," he went on. "Well, 'Big Mike' says he never saw you before."

[illegible] never saw" said the favorite of the hop.

"As a rule," went on Dempsey, huskily sweet, "O'Sullivans in this district know one another. You escorted one of our lady members here, and we want a chance to make good.

"One moment, Mr. Sullivan," said Dempsey.

If you've got a family tree let's see a few historical O'Sullivan buds come out on it. Or do you want us to dig it out of you by the roots?"

"Suppose you mind your own business," suggested O'Sullivan, blandly.

Dempsey's eye brightened. He held up an inspired forefinger as though a brilliant idea had struck him.

"I've got it now," he said cordially. "It was just a little mistake. You ain't no O'Sullivan. You are a ring-tailed monkey. Excuse us for not recognizing you at first."

O'Sullivan's eye flashed. He made a quick movement, but Andy Geoghan was ready and caught his arm.

Dempsey nodded at Andy and William McMahan, the secretary of the club, and walked rapidly toward a door at the rear of the hall. Two other members of the Give and Take Association swiftly joined the little group. Terry O'Sullivan was now in the hands of the Board of Rules and Social Referees. They spoke to him briefly and softly, and conducted him out through the same door at the rear.

This movement on the part of the Clover Leaf members requires a word of elucidation. Back of the association by the club. In this room personal difficulties that arose on the ballroom floor were settled, man to man, with the weapons of nature, under the supervision of the board. No lady could say that she had witnessed a fight at a Clover Leaf hop in several years. Its gentlemen members guaranteed that.

So easily and smoothly had Dempsey and the board done their preliminary work that many in the hall had not noticed the checking of the fascinating O'Sullivan's social triumph. Among these was Maggie. She looked about for her escort.

"Smoke up!" said Rose Cassidy. "Wasn't you on? Demps Donovan picked a scrap with your Lizzie-boy, and they've waltzed out to the slaughter room with him. How's my hair look done up this way, Mag?"

Maggie laid a hand on the bosom of her cheese-cloth waist.

"Gone to fight with Dempsey!" she said, breathlessly. "They've got to be stopped. Dempsey Donovan can't fight him. Why, he'll—he'll kill him!"

"Ah, what do you care?" said Rosa. "Don't some of 'em fight every hop?"

But Maggie was off, darting her zig-zag way through the maze of dancers. She burst through the rear door into the dark hall and then threw her solid shoulder against the door of the room of single combat. It gave way, and in the instant that she entered her eye caught the scene—the Board standing about with open watches; Dempsey Donovan in his shirt sleeves dancing, light-footed, with the wary grace of the modern pugilist, within easy reach of his adversary; Terry O'Sullivan standing with arms folded and a murderous look in his dark eyes. And without slacking the speed of her entrance she leaped forward with a scream—leaped in time to catch and hang upon the arm of O'Sullivan that was suddenly uplifted, and to whisk from it the long, bright stiletto that he had drawn from his bosom.

The knife fell and rang upon the floor. Cold steel drawn in the rooms of the Give and Take Association! Such a thing had never happened before. Everyone stood motionless for a minute. Andy Geoghan kicked the stiletto with the toe of his shoe curiously, like an antiquarian who has come upon some ancient weapon unknown to his learning.

And then O'Sullivan hissed something unintelligible between his teeth. Dempsey and the board exchanged looks. And then Dempsey looked at O'Sullivan without anger, as one looks at a stray dog, and nodded his head in the direction of the door.

"The back stairs, Guiseppi," he said, briefly. "Somebody'll pitch your hat down after you."

Maggie walked up to Dempsey Donovan. There was a brilliant spot of red in her cheeks, down which slow tears were running. But she looked him bravely in the eye.

"I knew it, Dempsey," she said, as her eyes grew dull even in their tears. "I knew he was a Guinea. His name's Tony Spinelli. I hurried in when they told me you and him was scrappin'. Them Guineas always carries knives. But you don't understand, Dempsey. I never had a fellow in my life. I got tired of comin' with Anna and Jimmy every night, so I fixed it with him to call himself O'Sullivan, and brought him along. I knew there'd be nothin' doin' for him if he came as a Dago. I guess I'll resign from the club now."

Dempsey turned to Andy Geoghan.

"Chuck that cheese slicer out of the window," he said, "and tell 'em inside that Mr. O'Sullivan has had a telephone message to go down to Tammany Hall."

And then he turned back to Maggie.

"Say, Mag," he said, "I'll see you home. And how about next Saturday night? Will you come to the hop with me if I call around for you?"

It was remarkable how quickly Maggie's eyes could change from dull to a shining brown.

"With you, Dempsey?" she stammered. "Say—will a duck swim?"

RENO REPORTS SMALLPOX.

RENO, June 10.—Forty-three cases of smallpox have been reported here by Dr. W. L. Samuels. He announced he believed other cases are kept hidden. He says the fact that some persons evidently are concealing that they have the disease has much to do with the spread of the malady.

Even the hardest play can't wear them out as much as the washboard does

Little sister makes mud pies—and even the baby's clothes get dust and dirt ground into them in spite of all your watching.

By the time Monday comes around there's a great heap of grimy little garments—garments that used to need hours of rubbing and scrubbing and boiling before they would "come clean."

That weekly rubbing on the washboard wore out the fabric faster than the hardest playing could have done.

Make them last twice as long

You need no longer waste your strength and wear out the children's clothes on the ruinous washboard.

You just soak them clean with Rinso, the new form of soap in granules. You do away with all the old boiling and hard rubbing.

Just soak the dirty little play garments overnight in the bubbling, cleansing Rinso suds, or for three hours in the morning.

Then you rinse them! And they are clean! Rinso has done all the work, it has loosened all the dirt. Only the most soiled spots, cuffs, knees of little trousers, will need a light rubbing between your hands.

All the work is saved—and the clothes are saved, too. For the Rinso granules are so rich in cleansing value that they loosen all the dirt while the clothes soak; yet they are so pure they cannot do the slightest injury.

Even in cold water Rinso cleans in the same wonderful way.

Order Rinso from your grocer today and follow the easy directions on the package. One package does a whole week's laundry.—Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass. (Makers of Lux.)

T. & D.

Large crowds are attending the T. and D. this week to see "In Search of a Sinner," in which Constance Talmadge is shown at her best. On the same program is "Impossible Catherine," featuring Virginia Pearson. Edythe Cunningham with a group of songs, the T. & D. News Weekly and a Pathe News completes the bill.

BREAKING THRU

A RUINOUS INVESTMENT

Is that made by school teachers in the money and years of their lives they spend in training for teaching.

Their salaries are not enough to redeem the principle of their training-investment or to give a proper interest-return on it. And under the present schedule they can live only by practicing the strictest economy unless they have other sources of revenue.

These are the reasons why teachers are leaving the schools. They are the reasons for the flat refusal of young people to consider a career of teaching. They are the reasons why parents must take immediate and drastic action to prevent their children from being subjected to inferior schooling at the hands of inferior teachers.

The necessity of paying the teachers a living wage is obvious. The need for paying them more than a living wage, a salary that will redeem the principle of their training-investment and give a fair interest-return on it, is illustrated thus:

In all but the professional occupations the workers are paid to learn the business. Thus by the time a high school teacher has prepared and is able to gain a certificate to teach, a process that costs her money and years of time, a a carpenter can have earned $20,000. After seven years of experience the high school teacher reaches a maximum of $2160 per year as against the carpenter's $2448.

So it appears that the teachers must be paid more than simply a living wage if the schools are to be manned by naturally capable and adequately trained men and women.

The problem is one for the parents of children. They must pay competent people not only a living wage but "a professional wage for professional services." Otherwise their children will pay in inferior schooling by inferior teachers.

Write to the City Council today. Insist that the teachers be given enough to keep the schools up to their customary high standard.

"BIG 3" MARK TIME; WINNERS ARE NOT YET TAGGED

MANAGERS DISPLAY FEVERISH ZEAL IN LINING UP VOTES

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

CHICAGO, June 10.—The managers of the various candidates are bolstering up weak spots. The final drive for more than 500 uninstructed, unpledged delegates who hold the balance of power in this convention [illegible] today.

Undeterred by whispers of "bolts" by Hiram Johnson, Senator Borah and Senator McCormick, the Lowden and Wood supporters swung again into action with statements and claims of strength.

It was confidently asserted by managers for General Wood that he would have considerably over 300 votes on the first ballot. Frank Hitchcock, floor manager of the Wood forces, declared that the result already is settled, although with his customary reticence he declined to give figures.

Along Michigan avenue during the night and early today, where the hundreds of delegates and visitors milled aimlessly around, awaiting the breaking of the platform deadlock, could be heard "straight from the feedbox" stories which nominated nearly every candidate.

REPORT THAT KNOX HAS PENROSE SUPPORT.

There were whispered tales of secret conferences during the night which "settled" the whole business. John King of Connecticut, who sits at the Chicago end of the wire that runs to Boies Penrose's bedside in Philadelphia, had just had a conversation with the "old master" which put the final stamp of approval on Philander C. Knox. That was one of them. There were a dozen like it except for the name of the man who had been approved.

Another was that a group of powerful steel men and bankers who included Elbert H. Gary, head of the steel corporation, and Leonard Replogle, had met in secret conference and turned thumbs down on the entire "big three"—Johnson, Wood and Lowden—and given their approval to Governor William C. Sproul of Pennsylvania.

Still another was the mysterious "powers" had realized their inability to stop the swing to Hiram Johnson and had unwillingly passed the word along to let the Californian go over.

Even though the party managers decided to go ahead with the nominating speeches today there will be no ballot in all likelihood. There are enough speeches alone to occupy all of one day and anyhow, some of the men who are uptown trying to break the deadlock want to be in on the balloting. Nine hundred and some odd delegates voting without the presence of some of the party leaders is not to their liking. Something might go over.

And still another was that Wood would have so many votes on the first two ballots that only a political miracle could prevent enough uninstructed delegates swinging to his side to put him over.

There was a story for every candidate. One named his man and took his choice.

But casting aside the claims and the camouflage and disregarding the "inside stories" that lurked on every side, the one bald fact remained that there are still more than 500 uninstructed delegates in this convention and which way they will turn no man can say with any degree of certainty.

The unprejudiced observers here—and there are few of them—admit that regardless of what may happen tonight or tomorrow, today the booms are stalemated.

ALL BOOMS NOW SEEM STALEMATED.

None of them are making any pronounced or visible headway against the stonewall of independent voting strength.

It is confidently predicted that they will make no such headway until two ballots have gone into political history. Then, it is agreed, the tide will begin to run in some direction.

Hiram Johnson probably will be the first man nominated in the speech making if the management decides to go ahead with the speeches today.

Alabama, Arizona and Arkansas all will pass, having no candidates to offer, when the roll of states is called. This will put it up to Charles S. Wheeler of San Francisco, who will name Johnson.

The states between California and Illinois on the alphabetical list are expected to pass and Congressman "Billy" Rodenberg will give the name of Illinois' favorite son, Governor Lowden.

Kansas comes soon after and [illegible] the name of General Wood into the fight.

Thus, unless surprises are sprung, the first three names offered will be those of the big three: Johnson, Lowden and Wood.

The herd of "dark horses" will follow as the states are called.

AGED AND SPORTY LINGUIST JAILED AS CHECK FRAUD

Attired in the height of fashion and stepping as briskly as a Paris an boulevardier, seventy-four-year-old Jules Clemeaux of international reputation and master of several languages was arrested last night in the [illegible] House [illegible] Washington [illegible] Frank [illegible] charged with attempting to pass a bad check for $28.10 on the place. The police suspect him of having swindled firms in other parts of the United States in a similar manner.

Using cosmopolitan manners and his knowledge of foreign languages and customs, Clemeaux, alias Georges Le Coer, alias George P. La Monte, has passed checks for various amounts on J. J. McAvoy, Houts & Ramage and the Lucile Cloak Concern, it is charged.

Several hundred dollars were found on him at the time of his arrest, together with the cards of his various aliases.

Taft to Spend Few Hours in Chicago

CHICAGO, June 10.—Former President Taft will arrive here tomorrow and will stop over a few hours before leaving for New York. It was said today he probably would not visit the convention or attempt to take part in platform conferences.

Cardinal Prays for Harmony

Forbearance Asked in Invocation

CHICAGO, June 10.—Cardinal Gibbons' prayer at opening of today's session of the Republican national convention follows:

We pray Thee, O God of Might, Wisdom and Justice, through whom authority is rightly administered, laws are enacted and judgment decreed, vouchsafe to inspire Thy servants, the citizens of America, to elect a chief magistrate, whose administration will be conducted in righteousness and be eminently useful to Thy people over whom we shall preside, by encouraging due respect for virtue and religion, by a faithful execution of the laws in justice and mercy and by restraining vice and immorality.

May Thy people always realize the inspired truth, that "righteousness exalteth a nation, but that sin maketh a people miserable." May they be intimately persuaded, that if our nation is to be perpetuated, our government must rest, not on formidable standing armies, not on dreadnaughts, for the "race is not to the swift nor the battle to the strong."

May they be persuaded that our government must rest upon the eternal principles of truth, justice and righteousness; on downright honesty in our dealings with foreign nations, and on the devout recognition of an overruling Providence, who has created all things by His power, governs all things by His wisdom, and whose eternal vigilance watches over the affairs of nations and of men, and without whom not even a bird can fall to the ground. "Unless the Lord build the house; they labor in vain that build it; unless the Lord keep the city; he watcheth in vain that keepeth it."

Grant, O Lord, that the administration of the new chief magistrate may redound to the spiritual and material welfare of the Commonwealth; to the suppression of sedition and anarchy; and to the strength and perpetuity of our civil and political institutions.

I have been, O Lord, in my day a personal and living witness of the tremendous upheavals which threatened to rend the nation asunder, from the inauguration of thy servant Abraham Lincoln, even unto this day. But Thou hast saved us in the past by Thy almighty power and I have an abiding confidence that Thou wilt be gracious with us in every future emergency.

Grant that the proceedings of this convention may be marked by a wisdom, discretion, concord, harmony and mutual forbearance, worthy of an enlightened and patriotic body of American citizens.

Democratic Keynoter Talks of 1920 Issues

Chairman Cummings, on Coast to Make Convention Plans, Says League and Labor Problems Will Be Paramount

Establishment of amicable relations between capital and labor and the adoption of the League of Nations by the United States, are the two great problems which surpass all others, except the naming of a winning candidate, to be considered by the Democratic national convention when it opens at the San Francisco auditorium June 28, according to Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the executive committee, and "keynoter" for the great gathering.

Cummings, who arrived here Tuesday accompanied by prominent Democrats, and set up executive offices at the Palace hotel in addition to the headquarters at the Auditorium, today announced the personnel of the executive committee which consists of twenty-one men and fourteen women.

[illegible] nomination for president among whom and others the 1092 delegates will choose, together with their nominating speakers, were announced as follows:

William G. McAdoo, to be presented by Dr. Burris Jenkins, Kansas City; A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney general, by John H. Bigelow, Pennsylvania; Governor James Cox of Ohio, by Supreme Court Judge James C. Johnson of Columbus, Ohio; Governor Edward I. Edwards of New Jersey, introduced by Charles X. O'Brien of Jersey City; Senator Robert L. Owen, Oklahoma, by D. H. Linebaugh, Muskogee; Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock, Nebraska, by ex-Governor A. C. Shallenberger, and Secretary of Agriculture E. T. Meredith, presented by Claude Porter, Iowa. Carter Glass of Virginia, secretary of the treasury; John W. Davis of West Virginia, ambassador to England, and U. S. Senator F. Simmons of North Carolina are expected to be other candidates.

WILSON INSISTENT.

Cummings, who saw President Wilson only shortly before coming to California, said that the president's insistence that the league of nations be adopted without reservations had not been abated. So far as the Democrats are concerned, the wet or dry issue has been settled. When asked concerning the president's health, Cummings like other eastern Democrats, was evasive.

That the president must be in a very serious condition was indicated by Mrs. George Bass of Chicago, chairman of the Women's Bureau, who after admitting that she had seen the president before coming west, became suddenly very secretive when asked concerning his condition. In fact no prominent Democrats who have access to President Wilson [illegible] health.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The executive committee, the names of whom were announced today for the first time by Cummings, consist of the chairman, Homer S. Cummings, Stamford, Conn.; J. B. Kremer, Butte; Samuel B. Amidon, Wichita; E. L. Hoffman, secretary, [illegible] Wayne; W. R. Hollister, ex-[illegible] secretary, Washington, D. C.; Wilbur W. Marsh, treasurer, Waterloo; W. D. Jamieson, Washington, D. C.; John W. Coughlin, Fall River; [illegible] Howell, Atlanta; Isidor B. Dockweiler, Los Angeles; Cordell Hull, Carthage, Tenn.; Norman E. Mack, Buffalo, N. Y.; A. Mitchell Palmer, Stroudsburg, Pa.; John T. Barnett, Denver; A. A. Jones, [illegible] N. M.; E. H. Moore, Youngstown, Ohio; William Saulsbury, Wilmington, Del.; Charles Boeschenstein, Edwardsville, Ill.; Carter Glass, [illegible]; [illegible] St. Paul and A. F. Mullen, Omaha. ACOUSTIC TENT.

The press and [illegible] seating capacity of 10,000 people, is being equipped with a $1,000 [illegible] tent, which will be hoisted to the ceiling to break up echoes, and painters and carpenters are busy painting and tinting the walls, building platforms and seats on the main floor, erecting a gigantic press box to contain 517 newspaper men, and draping the whole with myriads of American flags.

The "keynote" speech which will open the big assembly at 11 o'clock on the morning of June 28, will be delivered by Homer S. Cummings from the pipe organ balcony.

Reduction of the cost of living by vigorous prosecution of profiteers, passage of national child labor laws and laws to protect women and minors in industries such as are now effective in California and greater consideration of educational and labor problems are measures advocated by Mrs. George Bass of Chicago, chairman of the Women's Bureau, who declares that 15,000,000 women can now vote and that when the thirty-sixth state has ratified the constitutional amendment, 25,000,000 will be enfranchised.

PICKETING DEPRECATED.

Mrs. Bass deprecated the action of the militant suffragettes in picketing the Republican national convention, declaring that it was unreasonable to hold the Republicans responsible for failure of a state to ratify.

Chairman Cummings who was in consultation yesterday with Charles H. Fay, San Francisco postmaster, and members of his personal staff of twenty-five, was accompanied here by Mrs. Cummings, J. Bruce Kremer, vice chairman; Henry G. Giovanetti of Butte; W. R. Hollister, W. J. Cochran, director of publicity, Washington, D. C., and others. George C. Maher, assistant chairman, has been in the Auditorium in San Francisco as advance agent since January. Besides Mrs. Bass, Mrs. Charles Troy of Juneau, Alaska, and Miss Anne Baker of Washington, are here representing women Democrats. One woman from each of the forty-eight states will attend, Miss Mary Foy of Pasadena, having been named as California's representative.

Bryan Coming West Determined to Make Democracy Dry If He Fires Every Word From Matchless Vocabulary

Lines for the wet and dry battle before the Democratic national convention in San Francisco hourly are being more sharply drawn.

All that remains is the closing of the Republican convention, which will send Reporter Bryan from the press box in the Chicago coliseum across the country to San Francisco to take charge of the anti-booze cohorts. When he arrives he will find already entrenched, Governor Edward I. Edwards of New Jersey, recognized exponent of wines and beer and the man who has guaranteed to bring the fight to the floor of the convention.

Edwards has already established headquarters in San Francisco and expects to be on the scene within a week or ten days. In New Jersey today he issued a statement demanding liberalization of the Volstead act and calling upon the people "lawfully and by constitutional methods prescribed" to pass judgment on it.

In his fight he has support of the Missouri and Maryland delegations and a great part of the delegation from New York.

Norman Mack is understood to be one of his strongest lieutenants and there is enough visible strength to assure a fight that will go down in Democratic history. Of course Bryan is the recognized leader of the drys. He is pledged to put up the battle of his life and to stand by his oratorical guns if need be, until there is not a word left in his vocabulary.

Edwards in his statement, appeals for a referendum on the question of light wine and beers. He will try to put the question up to the Democrats. There is no question about it, the "battle of the booze" is to be fought in the exposition auditorium.

ROW OVER TREATY PLANK IS ENDED BY ELIHU ROOT

$275,000,000 in the first year and $756,000,000 in five years. This estimate is made upon the basis that we would have only roving bands to fight, but in case of serious trouble with the Turks or with Russia a force exceeding 200,000 would be necessary."

"No more striking illustration can be found of President Wilson's disregard of the lives of American boys or of American interests.

"We deeply sympathize with the people of Armenia and stand ready to help them in all proper ways, but the Republican party will oppose now and hereafter the acceptance of a mandate for any country in Europe or Asia."

AMERICAN LIVES LOST IN MEXICO

The Mexican situation is thus referred to:

"The ineffective policy of the present administration in Mexican matters has been largely responsible for the continued loss of American lives in that country and upon our border; for the enormous loss of American and foreign property; for the lowering of American standards of morality and social relations with Mexicans, and for the bringing of American ideals of justice and national honor and political integrity into contempt and ridicule in Mexico and throughout the world.

"The policy of wordy, futile written protests against the acts of Mexican officials, explained the following day by the President himself as being meaningless and not intended to be considered seriously or in force, has but added in degree to that contempt, and has earned for us the sneeds and jeers of Mexican bandits and added insult upon insult against our national honor and dignity.

"We should not recognize any Mexican government unless it be a responsible government, willing and able to give sufficient guarantees that the lives and rights of American citizens are respected and protected; that wrongs will be promptly corrected and just compensation will be made for injury sustained. The Republican party pledges itself to a consistent, firm and effective policy toward Mexico, that shall enforce respect for the American flag and that shall protect the rights of American citizens lawfully in Mexico to security of life and enjoyment of property in accordance with established principles of international law and our treaty rights.

NO HOSTILITY TO MEXICO ENCOURAGED

"The Republican party is the sincere friend of the Mexican people. In its insistence upon the maintenance of order for the protection of American citizens within its borders a great service will be rendered the Mexican people themselves, for the continuance of present conditions means disaster to their interests and patriotic aspirations.

"We declare our opposition to the treaty and the league of nations as submitted by the President and approve the action of the Republican Senate in resisting ratification without safeguarding reservations.

"The judicial settlement of international disputes has always been a policy of the Republican party and the first general arbitration treaties were negotiated by a Republican administration. We favor the ratification of the treaty of peace with the league of nations with reservations which are in accord with American principles which protect the liberty and independence of the people of the United States and which in no case shall be less effective in these respects than the reservations proposed and adopted by the Republicans of the Senate. We also favor the codification and extension of rules of international law."

Railway Board and Irish Question Are Treated in Detail

By JUSTIN H. FORREST, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

CHICAGO, June 10.—Defeat of Governor Allen's industrial court plank, which was forecast yesterday, was accomplished in the steering committee but the plank adopted, on the other hand, is not as broad as that demanded by Samuel Gompers and the American Federation of Labor in the hearing before the committee.

As regards the railroads and public utilities, the plank urges the establishment of a tribunal to investigate and make decisions, to prevent tying up service. The decision of these tribunals should be "morally, but not legally" binding. Tribunals should refuse to accept jurisdiction except for investigating purposes, so long as service is interrupted, or men are on strike.

MAY INDORSE REPORT OF FALL COMMITTEE

In regard to Mexico, it seemed pretty certain the steering committee would get together on a plank which practically would indorse the report of the Fall investigating committee, which recommended the policing of Mexico until there is a return to normal conditions in the country. New Mexican interests also are insisting that the plank include a declaration that the United States will recognize no government in Mexico which cannot give complete assurance of protection to foreigners.

After the preamble, which cites the fact that conditions never were more grave, the platform declares that "the Republicans will undertake to end executive autocracy and restore to the people the constitutional government and the policies herein set forth will be carried out by the federal and state governments."

Here are summaries of the planks agreed upon by the steering committee:

Agriculture — Approves right of farmers to form [illegible] cooperative associations for marketing, [illegible] elimination of water, rail and motor transportation and amendment of the farm loan act to permit better financing of tenants who wish to buy farms.

TAX LOAN PROTECTS HARD-RIDDEN CONSUMER

Taxation—Recommends tax laws "which do not excessively mulct the consumer [illegible] for the present complex laws and creation of a tax board to simplify income tax procedure without legal recourse." The plank points out that the Republicans will inherit a tremendous debt from the Wilson administration, including a floating debt of more than $3,000,000,000, and adds that "an early reduction in the amount of needed revenue is not to be expected."

Economy—Pledges the party to "a carefully planned readjustment to a peace time basis and a policy of rigid economy."

The plank points out that the "executive departments and other establishments in Washington actually record an increase subsequent to the armistice of 2184 employees." The Republican adherence to a real budget system then is reaffirmed.

High Cost of Living—Pledges the party to honest money and sound finance and real battling against the further inflation of currency by a deflation of currency, prevention of excessive profits and an increased production and by the encouragement of public and private economy and thrift.

Federal Reserve Bank System — Recommends only that the system should be freed from political influence. Declares that there has been a policy of inflation through certificate borrowing from the banks and artificial rates maintained on bonds by low discount rates established by the board.

Industrial Relations—Denies right to strike against the government, but says rights of government employees must be safeguarded. Recognizes the right of collective bargaining and urges governmental initiative to prevent constantly recurring strikes, which inflict losses on the entire community. Fails to mention Kansas idea of industrial court, but declares against principle of compulsory arbitration in private industries. Urges better facilities for voluntary arbitration, mediation and conciliation, and urges establishment of governmental agencies to obtain such results.

Railroads — Opposes government ownership of railroads and the Plumb plan. Indorses the Cummins-Esch bill and insists upon the guarantee of a fair return upon the railroad securities.

URGES DEVELOPMENT OF COUNTRY'S WATERWAYS

Waterways—Urges full development of waterways as aid to solution of transportation problems.

Trusts—urges legislation to define more specifically the actual limitations of monopolies and combinations in restraint of trade, to give business an opportunity to know in advance what is and what is not lawful.

Merchant Marine — Urges great merchant marine, privately owned, as necessary adjunct to a real navy, and demands that coastwise trade vessels of the American merchant marine pay no Panama canal tolls.

Tariff—Reaffirms Republican adherence to a protective tariff as a means of preservation of home markets.

Immigration — Upholds policy of excluding Orientals and wants higher physical and mental standard tests for immigrants, who should be admitted in no greater number than can be assimilated. Wants better distribution of aliens. All aliens should be required to register annually until they become citizens.

Naturalization — Urges independent naturalization of married women and raising of standard of naturalization.

ALIENS BARRED FROM ABUSING "FREE SPEECH"

Free Speech—Declares all American citizens should not be deprived of the right of free speech, but aliens are not entitled to the same consideration, when their speech is directed against the governmental institutions of the country. Adequate public hearings should be given all aliens to be deported.

Woman Suffrage—Urges Republican governors to get ratification of nineteenth amendment.

Conservation — Denounces President Wilson for failure on the water power bill and urges discovery of means to preserve forests.

Postal Service—Condemns Democratic administration for failure to pay adequate wages to efficient and expert employees and destruction of efficiency of the postal service and the telegraph and telephone services while under government control.

Education and Health—Indorses principle of federal aid to states for vocational and agricultural training. Does not mention member of cabinet on education or other suggestions embodied in demand of teachers. Says physical education of all youths up to the age of 19 would remedy conditions revealed in the draft. Urges better co-ordination of scattered activities of public health service, which is condemned now as wasteful.

WOMEN'S BUREAU IN LABOR DEPARTMENT

Women Workers — Urges creation of women's bureau in department of labor; approves principle of equal pay for equal service and limitation of hours of employment in intensive occupations, products of which enter into interstate commerce.

Child Labor—Approves rigid laws against child labor.

Liquor—Approves policy of party in standing by the constitution and the Supreme Court.

War Powers—Declares Wilson's policy of clinging tenaciously to war powers "is intolerable."

Other planks urge the study of federal departments and bureaus with a view to consolidations and economies; the ending of lynching; liberal appropriation for highways; taking into consideration the losses in taxation to states which contain great federal forest preserves; fixed policy of reclamation, especially of western arid lands; conservation of human resources, through study and federal and state legislation; and study of the housing situation throughout the country, with data always up to date and available to promote home owning in the country. There also is a reaffirmation of approval of the civil service [illegible]

Whiskey Vanishes as Committee Debates Disposal

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, June 10.—An elderly delegate from Pennsylvania laid before the resolutions committee of the Republican national convention yesterday a large package which he said contained matter he desired "looked into." When Chairman Watson opened the bundle, he found a bottle of whiskey—real whiskey.

Senator Smoot of Utah, a teetotaler, was designated a committee of one to consider the subject, but returned it immediately without recommendations. Action by the full committee was prevented by disappearance of the contents of the bottle before it could reach that stage.

FIGHT ON TREATY RAGES FROM ROOM TO HALL AND BACK

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

CHICAGO, June 10.—A few hours ago it was the anti-league forces against which a cry of prospective insurrection was raised. Yesterday the pro-leaguers, the "reservationists," were openly charged by their opponents with having brought discord into the council of platform makers.

And underneath this dispute on issues still lay the unsolved riddle of the candidates — Wood, Johnson, Lowden, or—who?

The first sharp turn to the treaty question negotiations by the select sub-committee of the resolutions committee came yesterday when former Senator W. Murray Crane of Massachusetts, joining the ranks of those favoring qualified acceptance of the League covenant, served notice on the conferees that such a course must be followed or backed by senators who took that position in Washington, and the fight would be carried to the floor of the convention.

ENEMY GUNS TRAINED

This was turning the enemies' guns upon him with a vengeance. Heretofore, apprehension had prevailed among those leaders struggling for party harmony that it would be the "irreconcilables" who would stir to action the uncertain waters of an "unbossed" convention if their views against the league were not met in the platform.

For a moment the irreconcilable forces in the select committee dominated by Senators Borah and McCormick, seemed taken aback. They sprang to arms then in full force and from that time until after 1 o'clock this morning the battle waged furiously behind the locked doors of the hotel bedrooms where the committeemen in shirt sleeves and worn by the long strain searched every avenue for possible escape from an open break.

Echoes of the contest spread swiftly to even the most outlying posts of the convention encampment. Toward the end, before the select committee gave up the task and decided to carry the league issue with several other important points back to the full committee on resolutions, the struggle overflowed the bedroom battlefield.

A hasty conference in the corridor outside was held after midnight with Senator Smoot of Utah, a committee member, laying before his colleagues, Senators Borah and McCormick, a draft plank he had prepared. Its nature was not disclosed; but Senator McCormick repudiated it with evidences of excitement. His shout of "no, no, no" was audible through the hallway as the conference was broken off by his return to the committee room.

NO EARLY AGREEMENT

Senator Borah said he saw at that time no prospect of an early agreement. [illegible] Senator McCormick left the meeting expecting to return and Senator Borah said he had been opposing a proposal that the struggle continue all night. His prediction was confirmed and his view sustained a moment later when the committee adjourned.

From that meeting Senator Smoot carried the problem to another veteran of the historic struggle in the senate, Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the convention.

The convention program was not known in advance. Under rules it has adopted, it has been suggested that the naming of a candidate might be proceeded with, leaving platform issues to be settled as "unfinished business" later. In any case the convention is to listen to many speeches of nomination and it appeared possible these would be delivered during the day.

GOMPERS' SALARY RAISE PROJECTED

MONTREAL, June 10.—Resolutions were before the American Federation of Labor convention today providing for the following:

Increase in the salary of President Samuel Gompers from $10,000 to $12,000 a year to meet the high cost of living.

Creation of a fund to establish a chain of daily newspapers throughout the United States to represent labor.

Establishment of an educational bureau to spread non-partisan political propaganda.

Abolition of the color line in southern unions and an appeal to the federation to insist upon recognition of the negro voter by the dominant political parties.

The policies of the officials of the federation were attacked in one resolution. They were charged with responsibility for the use of the injunction in strike trouble.

The convention today voted for an international policemen's union when combined membership of American policemen's unions reaches six thousand and a majority request as international charter.

The convention decided to throw the strength of the whole federation behind the movement to unionize Detroit. All unions are to send organizers there.

Princess, Daughter of American, Is Dead

PARIS, June 10.—Princess Francesca Rospigliosi, daughter of Princess Joseph Rospigliosi, formerly Miss Mary Jennings Reid of New Orleans and Washington, died at the family's country home near this city yesterday.

Princess Francesca Rospigliosi was born August 2, 1902. Her mother was divorced from F. E. Parkhurst of Bangor, Maine, then married civilly to Prince Rospigliosi in 1901. The prince died on September 22, 1913 and it was announced that a few hours before his death a religious ceremony of marriage had been performed by a Catholic priest.

JOHNSON WILL USE STICK ON ALL 'BETRAYERS'

CHICAGO, June 10. — Senator Johnson gave notice that he would take measures of reprisal against any delegate pledged to his support by results of primary election who did not "stick."

Speaking to newspaper correspondents, he declared his opponents were using means of every kind to shake the allegiance of some of his supporters, mentioned "gold" and added that if any delegates broke away "I'll take his case to his people."

Reiterating his opposition to the league of nations, Senator Johnson said that unless the platform committee took a corresponding stand he would ask the convention, and the people of the United States, to reject its proposals.

BALLOTING TOMORROW

"The convention is tightening up more and more," the Senator declared. "It will get to balloting probably tomorrow, and as the time approaches my confidence increases.

"I think there will be a number of ballots. We will not endeavor to start with a tremendous number, but as the ballots are taken I think you'll observe later that we'll move along.

"I've been talking to delegates all today about who can best do the job before us, which is that of eliminating the present administration from power. I'd like to submit the question to you, or to anybody, as to who can get the most votes. Conceding all candidates before the convention have requisite qualifications for the presidency, there can be no reason for refusing a nomination to that individual except the old theory of striving for immediate success rather than ultimate victory."

NO BETRAYAL SUSPECTED

"Any man who betrays his people or betrays me," he said, in breaking off a volley of questions and referring to primary delegates, "whether for gold or any other reason, I'll take his case to his people, and I'd like to make that plain. I don't believe there will be any such betrayal."

Flag Day Program For City Prepared

Under the auspices of the American Legion, Grand Army of the Republic and other patriotic organizations, a Flag Day program will be held at Mosswood Park June 14, with a luncheon, band music, community singing, addresses, flag drills and races as features.

Captain W. R. Thomas is chairman; Walter McElroy, G. A. R. chaplain, will deliver the invocation. Others on the program are Mrs. J. W. Monstock, Captain N. C. Stone, Judge J. J. Dunn, Viola S. Murphy, Philip M. Carey, I. H. Clay and Mrs. Georgia Hodgman. Six hundred pupils from Grant, Piedmont avenue and Emerson schools will stage a pageant under the supervision of G. H. Pfund.

Increase Shown By Railroad Earnings

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Net operating income of the railroads increased by nearly 8 million dollars during March—the first month after their return to private control—compared with March, 1918, when the government controlled the lines, according to a partial summary issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

For March, 1920, the net operating income of the roads was $10,206,-576, compared with $9,306,592 for March, 1919, and for the first three months of 1920 the total was $63,-427,105 as against $34,186,086 for the corresponding months of 1919.

Operating revenues for March were $450,470,217 against $368,096,-045 for March, 1919, and operating expenses amounted to $417,343,-385 compared with $340,130,021 for that month last year.

PERSHING BOOM AS DEMOCRATIC DARK HORSE ON

BY UNITED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

NEW YORK, June 10.—A dark horse boom for General John Pershing for the Democratic presidential nomination was set in motion here today.

It was announced that Edward F. Goltra, national Democratic committeeman from Missouri, will leave for Washington to invite General Pershing to attend the San Francisco convention as a guest of a big Missouri delegation, on a special train.

Pershing is a native of Missouri, and the men behind this movement claim he is eligible for nomination as a Democrat, although he has no definite party alignment.

The Goltra party has arranged to invite prominent native sons of Missouri, and it is stated that among these Secretary of State Colby has already accepted. Augustus Thomas, playwright and orator, also a Missourian, is booked, it is said, to present Pershing's name to the San Francisco convention.

There appeared little doubt that the announcement here today was timed deliberately with reference to the Republican convention in Chicago.

It is known that General Pershing, during the last week, has been in conference with some of the leading factors in the Democratic party, although there is no suggestion that he is actively approving or presenting the movement launched in his behalf.

Announcement of the movement to make General Pershing the presidential nominee follows close upon the statement that Pershing would shortly retire from the active list in the army.

IDLE RUMORS HURT JOHNSON'S CAUSE

committee up all night in an endeavor to arrive at an agreement. On the resolutions committee various viewpoints were presented. There were the Johnson supporters who opposed the league; the senatorial coterie, representing the majority Republican sentiment, who advocated an endorsement of their efforts in adopting reservations; a few who favored the league idea, and still another element which had rather agree to a compromise than permit the league to reach the floor for debate, fearing that it would rebound to the benefit of the candidacy of Senator Johnson. All this but illustrates how unwise it was to permit this big question to be tossed into the arena of politics.

The situation may change any minute. It is difficult and unsafe to make predictions at this hour. Senator Johnson and his close advisers are sanguine and are banking on certain assurances of support that will come after the first ballot. Other candidates are relying on similar assurances.

As the fight warms up so does the Chicago weather. A fresh breeze from the Pacific would be welcomed by the Californians, who are not prepared for the sweltering atmosphere of the big convention hall, packed to its full capacity. The delegates who will sit in the Democratic convention can at least remain cool physically, if not mentally.

CONVENTIONALITIES

CHICAGO, June 10 (United Press) —Hoover supporters became more active today and everybody in the convention lobbies was being buttonholed by pretty girls.

It's a poor convention visitor who hasn't some sort of a title. There are senators, governors, congressmen, colonels and the like. When someone addressed a man as plain "mister" in the Blackstone lobby, the crowd nearly broke its collective neck to see the freak.

A fat man in a tight-fitting Palm Beach suit sauntered through the Auditorium hotel lobby and drew envious glances because of a suspicious bulge in his hip pocket. Then he destroyed the illusion by whisking out a bandana handkerchief the size of a sheet.

Just to be on hand in case of an emergency, a French whippet tank rolled down State street and parked a block or so from the Coliseum.

Loud cheers were heard in the vicinity of Candidates' Row during the night, but they were for President De Valera of Ireland. His sympathizers formed a bigger parade than any of the candidates thus far has had.

Pounding the marble floors of the convention hotels is hard on shoes. One delegate was seen wearing an easy pair and carrying an extra set in his hand—for emergency use, perhaps, like a spare tire.

Pastors Refuse to Give Up Tobacco

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 10. —The use of tobacco will not be sacrificed for the church by the clergymen of the general synod Reformed Churches of America, the ministers decided at the closing session of the synod here.

A resolution, introduced by Rev. J. Garland Hammer Jr. of Belleville, N. J., proposing that the clergymen give up the weed in order to make their church contributions more liberal, was defeated 61 to 28.

Alimony of $50,000 Asked By Husband

SACRAMENTO, June 10.—Asserting she had brought about their second marriage by false promises that he would want for nothing and would have a contented old age, William J. Lively, 70 years old, appeared in court yesterday and asked $50,000 damages from Mrs. Effie Gainsley Lively, who is 50. Lively charged breach of pre-nuptial contract and he asked for separate maintenance.

Letters were introduced to prove that Mrs. Lively sought to reawaken the love of her former husband by promises of ease and comfort.

The Livelys were first married in San Francisco twenty years ago. Lively obtained a divorce, charging that his wife used stimulants.

In 1916 Mrs. Lively married Seth Gainsley, a saloon keeper, who died soon after the wedding and left her an estate valued at more than $200,000.

According to Lively soon after Gainsley's death he received a letter signed "Your loving Effie." Having only a small income, he said, he married Mrs. Gainsley in December, 1917, in Oakland.

What Is the E. R. Parker System?

E. R. PARKER SYSTEM

THE E. R. Parker System in Dentistry is the result of the experience of Dr. Painless Parker and his associates extending over twenty-seven years. Instead of one man practicing in a small way in a small office, several dentists practice together under the Parker System in large offices, where there is room for complete equipment.

Some of the System dentists extract teeth, some fill teeth, some make crowns and bridges, some make artificial plates and some treat diseased teeth. In this way each patient is cared for by a dentist who is experienced in the kind of work each patient needs.

Dental work done in this manner is not only done better, but in less time, making fewer visits necessary, and the saving in time helps to make prices lower.

There are twenty-four offices where the E. R. Parker System is used, located in different cities. Thousands of patients are treated in these offices, and the large quantities of dental supplies used are bought for less money than has to be paid for small quantities.

All dentists using the E. R. Parker System are registered, licensed and experienced. The work they do is done so well that it can be guaranteed. You are sure of satisfaction.

Under the Parker System no charge is made for examinations and advice. You can find out what your teeth need without having to pay a cent. The best things known in dentistry to overcome pain are used in Parker System offices, so you need have no fear at all.

The whole idea is this: Fine dentistry, fewer visits, moderate cost, no fear of pain, satisfaction.

Home Decked in Flowers Affords Wedding Setting

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. George Moore in Claremont was the setting last night for a beautiful wedding when their niece, Miss Betty Funsten, became the bride of Howard William Flye of San Francisco. The Moore home was decorated in pink sweet peas and ferns, these used in the appointment of the improvised altar before the fireplace in the living room, while in the dining room quantities of pink snapdragons, roses and delphinium were used. About one hundred witnessed the ceremony, read by Dean J. Wilmer Gresham of Grace Cathedral, San Francisco.

Miss Funsten deviated from the usual custom of white and was married in a gown of flesh toned beaded georgette and satin, with formal court train of satin over which was draped a handsome bridal veil of lace caught here and there in draped effect with orange blossoms, a corsage of the same used at the coming. Orchids and lilies of the valley comprised the shower bouquet.

Mrs. James Johnston Funsten Jr., matron of honor, and Miss Isabel Strong, maid of honor, were gowned similarly in gold colored taffeta, made in bouffant mode, with which they carried shower bouquets of Irish Elegance roses and delphinium. A buffet supper was served following the ceremony and informal reception.

Both bride and bridegroom are well known in University circles, Mrs. Flye having received her degree at Stanford and her husband at Yale University in the east.

COUPLE WED AT TRINITY CHURCH

Another June bride was Miss Elva Straub, who became the bride of George E. Strong of this city Saturday evening at Trinity Episcopal church, Rev. Lloyd B. Thomas officiating. The bride wore white satin and silver lace with the formal wedding veil of tulle and orange blossoms. Miss Eva Anderson of Gilroy was bridesmaid and gowned in pink organdie. The two little flower girls wore frocks of blue, while little Carolyn Strong served as ring bearer. Fifty relatives of the couple were guests at the reception given later at the bride's home.

REV. DILLE WEDS COUPLE

At high noon yesterday at the Hotel Oakland Miss Elizabeth Myall, of Alameda, became the bride of E. Phelps Lee Hollywood, only members of the immediate family being present, Rev. E. R. Dille of Alameda officiating. Miss Emma Jamieson of San Jose was bridesmaid, while Clayton White served as best man.

Editor Will Talk On Prohibition Laws

Charles A. Windle of Chicago, editor of Brann's Iconoclast, will deliver a lecture at Ye Liberty Theater tonight on the subject "Is Prohibition Right in Principle and Christian in Character?" He has challenged any accredited representative of the Anti-Saloon League to prove that it is.

The program is being given under the direction of the Oakland Caravan, No. 200, Order of Camels.

$500 OFFERED FOR THE BEST SAFETY RECORD

Extending the idea of "safety-first week" and making it a permanent affair, officials of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways have offered a $500 prize to the division which shows the largest percentage of decrease in accidents since the same months in 1919.

It will be a three-months contest, ending August 15. The prize will go toward the sick benefit fund of whatever division wins.

Bulletins showing the results of a study of various accidents are being posted at all the car barns.

The railroad officials assert that if but one accident is avoided because of the Safety First idea, it has proven well worth while.

PAINS NEARLY DOUBLED ME UP

Nothing Helped Me Until I Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Wyandotte, Mich.—"For the last four years I have doctored off and on without help. I have had pains every month so bad that I would nearly double up. Sometimes I could not sweep a room without stopping to rest, and everything I ate upset my stomach. Three years ago I lost a child and suffered so badly that I was out of my head at times. My bowels did not move for days and I could not eat without suffering. The doctor could not help me and one day I told my husband that I could not stand the pain any longer and sent him to the drug store to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and threw the doctor's medicine away. After taking three bottles of Vegetable Compound and using two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash I could do my own housework. If it had not been for your medicine I don't know where I would be to-day and I am never without a bottle of it in the house. You may publish this if you like that it may help some other woman."—Mrs. MARY STENDER, 120 Grange St., Wyandotte, Mich.

"THE MOVIE CRAZE."

An interesting story which may not be without embarrassment to certain well-known persons appeared in a recent issue of the New York Times. Mr. William Jennings Bryan, it is divulged, was to have taken the leading part in "Throughout the Ages," a prohibition and Democratic propaganda moving picture.

This is asserted upon the authority of E. F. Howe, president of the National Film Company of St. Louis, who had been engaged for the production of the film by Mr. Edward F. Goltra, Democratic national committeeman. Mr. Goltra, according to Mr. Howe, was to have expended $159,000, this sum to have been furnished jointly by Mr. Goltra and the Hostetters, a patent medicine concern of Pittsburgh.

Elaborate arrangements had been made for the dramatization of some of Mr. Bryan's speeches and the Nebraskan was to have been shown at frequent intervals delivering a dry oration. There was to have been scenes from the Democratic convention of 1912, of oriental scenes of feasting, scenes in France, illustrations of biblical quotations, a reel of the Hall of Mirrors in the Palace of Versailles, with the President appearing in some characteristic action for the screen.

Everything went smoothly until at the last moment the film company demanded an advanced payment of money and National Committeeman Goltra could not, or at least did not, "come through." The project, however, has not been definitely abandoned. Mr. Goltra has assured the producers that they can get Mr. Wilson to pose at any time and Rev. Dr. D. C. Dinwiddie, secretary of the Anti-Saloon League, is quoted as saying, "Aside from the moral effect, I am sure it would be sound business enterprise."

This disposition on the part of the leading Democrats to combine moral reform, politics, patent medicine and a possibly profitable moving picture venture, is an unique spectacle in American public life. But it is only slightly less stimulative of public interest than the striking propensity of Democratic leaders and officials for the movies.

Mr. McAdoo resigned from the important and honorable public office of Secretary of the Treasury to become attorney for a group of movie actors and actresses in Los Angeles. The friendships between the movie people and the Democratic administration was illustrated yesterday by the visit to Mr. Tumulty at the White House of Doug. Fairbanks and Mary Pickford.

Now it appears that Mr. Bryan is ready to remove temporarily, with his camel, from the Chautauqua tent to the movie film studio. The Democratic national committeeman appears as the promoter of the drama and gives the assurance that President Wilson is available at any time to assume a role in the modest film version of "Throughout the Ages."

THE SOLIDITY OF THE SOUTH.

At a political convention as well as at a National election the "solid South" demands a somewhat wondering attention.

At Chicago certain States in which the Republican totals are so small as not to be worth the counting are exerting a disproportionate power in nominating the man who will be the next President. The situation has long obtained and of course, has long been recognized as an evil for which no adequate remedy has appeared.

The solid Democratic vote of the South harms no section so much as it does that one in which its ballots are counted. Because there has grown out of the Civil War a tradition that a Southerner must vote the Democratic ticket to be a real Southerner and a good citizen, because there was at one time a race question at issue, and because men are wont to follow the fetish and the custom there has developed a condition in which a great part of the country remains in political ignorance.

By no manner is it possible to air both sides of a political question in eleven states of this Union. Controversies and discussions are confined to factions in the Democratic party and the man who announces himself as a Republica becomes, with the avowal, something akin to an outcast. Let the Democrats in San Francisco nominate any man they choose from Billy Sunday to Jack Dempsey and the South will give him its support.

This support, in figures, is 129 electoral votes, 25 per cent of the electoral college. It may name a president as it often has; it is unreasoning and uninformed.

Kentucky's break from the group in 1916 and its increased Republican majority a year ago is one indication of an awakening below the Mason and Dixon line to the fact that any section of the country which guarantees in advance a majority to any party is shutting the door to argument, reason, and the interests of the country.

Will the "solid South" ever cease to be so solid?

NAVY WILL DECIDE.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels in addressing the graduates of the naval academy at Annapolis a few days ago took occasion to utter a prophecy. He said:

"No two wars were ever won by the same tactics and few by the same weapons. If there is a next war—which God forbid, but let us keep our powder dry while we trust in Him—the naval hero will be the man quickest to discover and chart new and successful channels to victory, ready to throw in the discard the best weapons of the world war and adopt instantly the most approved tactics and weapons which will meet the need of the battle he must win."

The Secretary was referring, of course, to wars between sea-bound nations. All the evidence accumulated to date seems to confirm his judgment regarding future wars. Certainly in any conflict between this country and a power of another continent the issue would be decided by the naval forces—would be so decided unless the government were foolishly negligent in providing for the adequate defense of the nation.

Our most economical investments in national defense in the future will be expenditures in making the navy adequate to protect our shores against successful attack by an enemy. The navy must always be maintained in a state of efficient preparedness, and to this end there must be adequate accommodations for the fleet in the Pacific as well as for the fleet in the Atlantic ocean.

A few days before the German parliamentary election last Sunday, Herr Philip Scheidemann regretted the fact that the election would probably be held "on the American style." In the pre-election campaigning Herr Glessner was able to finish his speeches only after the military guards had removed organized antagonists from the hall. Herr von Graefe, an orator for the militarist party, sustained a broken collar-bone through being hit with a beer stein. Herr Schwedtmann of the People's Party was taken to a hospital after his auditors had answered his [illegible] arguments with clubs and beer mugs. Dr. Stresemann, president of the People's Party, had to leave his first meeting by the back door. At another meeting, for church members only, and to which admission was had by tickets, a wild riot ensued, and when the speakers were chased away by the major portion of the audience a score of bruised and wounded were left behind. Herr Scheidemann was wrong. The only time such proceedings reflected the American style of elections was when some imaginative German journalist came to the United States to tour the country but got no further than New York and Washington.

Mr. Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, has urged the National Republican Convention to pledge itself to measures for reducing the cost of living. The surest remedy, the one which would have immediate effect, is greater production. Secretary Morrison of the American Federation of Labor reported at the Federation convention in Montreal a few days ago that there had been 1200 authorized strikes in the United States during the last twelve months. There were three times as many unauthorized strikes. Mr. Gompers ought to be able to give some useful information on means of increasing production.

Maybe Pershing is quitting the army because all of the peace time fighting is in the navy.

JAPAN'S DELBRUCK LAW.

[illegible] American citizens of Japanese parentage who wish to forswear the allegiance that the Japanese government claims of them must file their papers with the local Japanese consulate at least two or three [illegible] before they attain the age of seventeen years, according to a statement issued by Acting Consul-General Furuya.

Mr. Furuya, of course, speaks not as an individual [illegible] of his government and is therefore not personally to be blamed. But the statement, as emanating from the Japanese government, is nothing less than an insolent affront to the United States. It means that Japan presumes to exercise authority in the United States over citizens of the United States. It is [illegible] that any citizen of the United States should petition a foreign government to release him for an allegiance it can exercise only in violation of the laws of this country.

American citizens of Japanese parentage can, of course, disregard Japan's pretensions and be personally safe as long as they remain in this country. But if they visit Japan they run the risk of arrest and punishment. In other words, the government of Japan would have the colossal effrontery to punish an American citizen for disobeying the orders, in his own land, of a foreign government.

And even if [illegible] does not visit Japan, we have been told that his relatives residing in that country are liable to punishment, or at least embarrassment, for his refusal to obey Japan's orders.

This is an intolerable situation, one that cannot and must not be permitted to continue. The matter should be brought so forcibly to the attention of the government at Washington that it cannot avoid taking the necessary steps to compel the Japanese government to abandon its absurd claim to exercise authority over our citizens.—Honolulu Advertiser.

NOTES and COMMENT

If anybody can frame a cynicism more keen than that in Senator Lodge's keynote speech which refers to the national administration's incompetency as being "so marvelous that it cannot be due to nature, but must be the result of art," he should hand it in and claim the blue ribbon.

The Agronomists discuss such subjects as "Problems of Power in Tilling and Harvest," "Farm Crop Diseases and Treatment," etc. It is only the name that is disquieting. The despatches tell of the hunt that is on for Villa. The new regime recognizes that its first important job is to eliminate this bloodthirsty character before it can appeal for recognition as an able-bodied government. SPIRIT of the STATE PRESS

Radcliffe's Chautauqua has come and gone. They staged a good performance and their lectures were of a high order. It was something new to the people of San Leandro and they evidently did not understand the nature of these performances. The Chautauqua people were very much disappointed the way San Leandro supported their show, but from a financial standpoint went away smiling and left the ten citizens who advanced the $550 as a guarantee, to mourn their loss. Each of the ten citizens advanced $55 and of this amount, after expenses were paid, received about $2 in return. Their loss is $53 each.—San Leandro Reporter.

June opened up with a flurry in brides. From east and west and all over California unusual activity is reported among the sweet things who are taking out licenses just as if nobody had ever heard of the high cost of living. Well, it is Leap Year and if the girls have taken matters into their own hands it might be suggested, among other things, that they change the wedding season from June to May. Nobody wants to doll up and go to a wedding with the thermometer trying itself out for the summer.—Stockton Record.

The mustard of the valley is looking very well, according to some who are to be considered authorities. To be sure some patches of the mustard are much the worse for lack of rain, but the general average is reported to look very fair. Because of the poor price of beans for the past two years a very considerable acreage of the land of the valley is in mustard, a fact to be taken into consideration, when the pessimist cries hard times and poor crops for the valley this fall.—Lompoc Review.

The movement to establish a great game preserve of 1000 square miles where the states of California, Oregon and Nevada join is not meeting with favor locally and protests have been forwarded to Washington. It is declared that such preserve would deprive thousands of head of stock of summer grazing and seriously cripple the industry in the region.—Fresno Republican.

Assistant Secretary of the Navy Franklin D. Roosevelt will visit Mare Island this summer, according to unofficial advices received at the navy yard today. It is Understood Among the Delegates That No Attempt Will Be Made to Write Liquor Into the Republican Platform—BUT—

"ROCKETS TO MARS"

First test of working models of rocket apparatus by which Professor Robert H. Goddard hopes to reach altitudes above the earth's air envelope, and even the moon, will be made at Worcester, Mass., late in July or in August, it is announced in a bulletin from the National Geographic Society's Washington headquarters.

"Should Professor Goddard's theory prove workable by his demonstrations at that time," the bulletin states, "the event may rank in the history of a new super-aviation science, as yet unnamed, along with the trial flights of the late Professor Samuel P. Langley's flying machines.

"But while the world ridiculed Langley and for a time regarded Bell's telephone and Morse's telegraph as mere playthings, our amazing strides in invention have created an open-minded attitude toward adventures in ingenuity so that the Goddard experiments are being awaited with keen interest.

"Wide publicity has been given the speculations concerning whether Professor Goddard's device may be projected to the moon; and while he holds that such a development is not impossible, it is one of the less practical aspects of the device. More immediate possibilities which Professor Goddard holds forth include the study of the aurora; of the short wave lengths in the spectrum of the sun which are entirely absorbed by the air; and, at more moderate altitudes, measurements of wind velocity, humidity, temperature and pressure, all of which enter into weather forecasting.

"While the penetration of the upper air, where there is supposed to exist a gas unknown on the lower aerial levels, the projection of a rocket beyond the world's atmosphere, and perhaps its direction to other planets, all offer a field of speculation outrivaling the pure romances of Jules Verne or H. G. Wells, the basic principles of the apparatus, like those underlying most inventions, are simple.

"Briefly, Professor Goddard's theory is this: The best rocket which could be imagined is one in which all heat energy of the powder could be converted, on burning, into energy of motion. In addition this ideal rocket would consist chiefly of this propelling material or powder. With a rocket of this sort it is evident that very great ranges would be obtainable with a comparatively small initial mass of rocket.

"In the case of the ordinary rocket neither of these conditions is realized, as only one-fiftieth of the energy of the powder is converted, on burning, into energy of motion. Furthermore, the powder constitutes but one-fifth the total mass of rocket. So far the problem is to strip the rocket's body and install the highest powered engine possible, as one would in a racing automobile.

"Experiments already performed demonstrate that as much as two-thirds of the heat energy of the powder used can be converted into energy of motion of gases, as compared with a previous efficiency of but 2 per cent.

"As regards the second point, namely, the possibility of using a large proportion of the weight of the rocket as propellant, enough already has been done to show that successive charges of propellant may be fired in the same combustion chamber and experiments in progress are for the purpose of firing a comparatively large number of charges in succession in this way.

"For extremely great altitudes a series of secondary rockets, or rockets within rockets, acting on the same principle might be utilized.

"In working out the application of these principles Professor Goddard has employed a nozzle to obtain the greatest force possible from the combustion (or explosion); a reloading device whereby the explosive material is used a little at a time, and the employment of a secondary rocket, similar to the first, when extreme altitudes are to be achieved.

"Herein, it is apparent, the principle of the long-range gun is employed; and effort is made to avoid the tremendous initial shock, such as occurs with an ordinary gun, by substituting a succession of explosions. One practical advantage of that course is to enable the rocket to carry with it instruments by which the high altitude conditions are to be registered. To prevent the tremendous concussion upon the fall of the instruments a parachute device is contemplated.

"In his experiments with smokeless powder Professor Goddard already has attained a velocity of nearly 8000 feet per second—the highest yet attained for matter in any appreciable quantity.

"In respect to the possibility of projecting a rocket to the moon, the question has arisen whether, even should sufficient momentum be obtained, the direction could be controlled to insure hitting that celestial target.

"Professor Goddard believes it possible to correct the flight, direction of which would be influenced by many disturbing factors, by the use of photosensitive cells. Thus the reflection of the moon's light upon these cells, he believes, could be made to operate automatic devices which would fire jets so arranged that their explosion would turn the rocket back to its desired course. Rudders could not be employed, of course, since there would be no resistance after the projectile passed outside the earth's atmosphere."

EMPEROR WORSHIP.

There is probably no nation in the world that has ever treated its emperors so cavalierly as Japan has done from the beginning of history down to within the memory of living man. Emperors have been deposed by dozens, emperors have been killed in generous numbers. One Yomei was stabbed without ado; one Sujin was assassinated by an emissary of the prime minister; the young Antoku was thrown into the sea to die like a rat; and it is piquant rumor, whispered in intimate circles, that Komei, father of the late Emperor Mutsuhito, died not of smallpox, as in the official report. Junnin Tenno was strangled on the island of Awaji; and one Imperial Personale (Daigo II) managed to escape from the distant island to which he was relegated, hidden under a load of dried fish. The number of crown princes slaughtered is too numerous to record. In the fourteenth century two rival houses defied each other for a period of fifty-eight years; and the present emperor is descended from the branch branded by later historians as illegitimate. Ko Moranao, a worthy of the fourteenth century, is credited with having told his followers to "take the estates of the Emperor if they wanted estates. A living emperor is a mere waster of the world's substance, and a burden upon the people. He is not necessary, but if we must have him, a wooden effigy would answer the purpose." For centuries the government was in the hands of the mayors of the palace, who set up one infant sovereign after the other, deposing each as he came to man's estate. From 1298 to 1304 there were actually no less than five ex-emperors living at one time.—From Emperor Worship by Raymon M. Weaver, in Asia for June.

U.S. WILL PROBE FALSE SHORTAGE OF GAS CHARGES

A government investigation of the gasoline shortage in northern California has been ordered by the Department of Justice in Washington.

Charges that the companies have instituted a rationing system and have created an artificial shortage and that, all the time, they are exporting gasoline to Japan and other places where a higher price is obtained are to be made the object of inquiry.

Announcement of the coming investigation was received today from Senator James Phelan, who telegraphed that the United States district attorney for this part of the sate would be instructed to take up the probe at once.

Charges made against the oil companies, all of which, with the exception of the Shell company, have been rationing customers, are that tankers have been sent to Japan with regularity and have been loaded with gasoline to be sold at a higher price than could be obtained here. It has also been charged that some of the fuel was sent east, where 10 cents a gallon in addition to the local price was obtained. Another angle to be looked into is the charge made that the oil companies created the shortage so that the public might be educated into using "cracked" gasoline, a product which is said to have a disagreeable odor and which would not appeal to motorists at any time except one of extremity.

The investigation, it is expected, will be under way before the end of next week. The gasoline companies have claimed that the necessity of supplying farmers with the fuel oil caused the shortage in the cities. For some time the Standard, Associated, and Union companies have been limiting the amount of gasoline to be sold pleasure drivers.

Woman Waits Vanished Husband; Mother and Baby Are in Need

Man Disappears When Couple Starts for New Home at Sacramento

Utterly destitute and compelled by force of necessity to rely upon the kindness of acquaintances for food and shelter for herself and five-months-old girl, Mrs. Mickel James today waits at 1188 Tenth street for news which will inform her whether her husband deserted her or was the victim of an accident or foul play.

MRS. MICKEL JAMES and five-months-old daughter, who have been left destitute by the mysterious disappearance of the husband and father.

And her unhappy plight today amid strangers marks the bursting of a bubble of hope which had been held forth by the husband, who told her of a home he had in Sacramento where she no longer would be forced to scrimp and save their monthly rent and where there would be a large yard in which the baby could play when it got older without danger of being run down by cars or automobiles.

These hopes were shattered yesterday as the couple and their baby left their rented apartment in Tenth street to go to Sacramento. Their baggage had been shipped and the tickets purchased and while waiting for train time James suggested they visit a store, where he would buy his wife a pair of gloves. To enable him to buy the tickets she had given him their little fortune, consisting of $340.

She waited in the reception room with the baby and soon her husband returned with the gloves. They were too small and he returned to exchange them. Two hours passed and he did not return. Overwrought with fear she inquired at the glove counter and was told he had returned the gloves, took the money and left the store.

An appeal was then made to the police and Captain of Inspectors William Kyle sent word to the Sacramento police to ascertain whether James called at the express office to get his baggage. At a late hour today no word had been received from the capital city police.

In the meanwhile Mrs. James has returned to the apartment where she is being cared for by people in the house.

Today she declared she "cannot understand why he has left us. It was so unlike him because he had always been good and never went out nights or anything like that."

Continuing she said:

"The $340 was everything we had saved during our three years of married life. Just a day or so ago he sold his equity in a lot we had for $260, and that added to our $80 was everything we had. I always kept the money, but yesterday he took it, but I did not think anything about it."

When asked to pose for a picture she agreed and picked up the baby, saying:

RICCARDI CHANCE FOR GOING FREE GAINS AT TRIAL

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—C. Vincent Riccardi's chances to escape a prison term have been increased considerably with the appearance of witnesses before Judge Mogan to testify as to the attorney's innocence of the crime charged. Riccardi was said to have obtained fraudulently $1400 from Alberto Rolati, who is serving an indeterminate sentence at Folsom.

Those who have testified for Riccardi in the civil action tending to establish his innocence are: Assistant District Attorney Joseph McShane, Deputy Sheriff William Tierney, G. Ponza and Riccardi himself.

CASE CONTINUED

The case has been continued until July 6. Specifically, it is an action brought by Rolati against Ponza, alleged to have been a go-between, and demanding the return of $400.

A new grand jury will investigate the Riccardi charges of hand-picked juries, according to the latest indications. There has been no decision from Attorney General U. S. Webb that would indicate that the present jury is to hang over and take charge of the investigation.

RECORDS SUPPORT

To his list of charges of irregular methods employed Riccardi has added a statement, which is supported by records, that certain cases assigned to one department of the superior court have been tried in another department. One case, that of Bessie Hall, is cited as an example. The records show that she was arraigned and tried in Department 6 when, as a matter of fact, she was never in that department but was tried in Department 11. The records were carried along as having taken place in Department 6. A copy of the information bears a rubber stamp mark 11.

Department 11 is Judge Franklin A. Griffin's court, the one in which James Groom is clerk.

3 Retiring School Men Honor Guests at Dinner of Associates

A combined record of more than a century of service in the Oakland school departments by three of its veteran grammar school principals was paid tribute at a dinner at the Hotel Claremont which was attended by more than 150 schol men and women of Oakland.

The three guests of honor were: S. P. Meads, principal of the Cole school, for forty-one years a member of the Oakland school department. Meads is 71 years of age.

S. G. S. Dunbar, principal of the Durant school, a member of the Oakland school department for thirty-three years with a record of fifty-five years of service as a California educator. He is 77 years old.

J. G. Gilson, principal of the Longfellow school is retiring at the age of 76, with a service record of thirty years in the Oakland School Department. Years ago he was one of Oakland's first superintendents of schools.

The dinner was given jointly by the Board of Education and the Principals' Club. Mrs. Daisie L. Short, school director, was in charge of arrangements.

MUSICAL PROGRAM.

During the dinner an informal musical program was presented, featured by a song, "We are Three Little Maids from School," who sang tribute to the three retiring principals concluding their song with the presentation of a large basket of roses to each of the principals. The girls were Dorothy and Grace Short, daughters of Mrs. Daisie L. Short, and Isabel Magana.

Other features were solos by Miss Gibbs of the Durant school, a trombone solo by Fred Brown and a vocal selection by Edward Campbell, supervising custodian of the school department.

Miss Elizabeth Arlett, president of the Principals' Club, presided at the dinner. Miss Elizabeth Sherman, principal of the Jefferson school, acted as toastmistress. In assuming the post of toastmistress, Miss Sherman said:

CROWN THEM HEROES.

Superintendent of Schools Fred M. Hunter was the first of the speakers. He said in part:

"We are here to crown three heroes running in life's race. It has not been long that the greatness of the service of teachers has been recognized. Oakland recognizes the great work of these men: the entire city honors them."

A telegram from Louis Aber, former president of the board of education, containing greetings, was read by Hunter.

The three principals were called upon for a few words concerning their impressions of such long service in the educational field. Principal Dunbar, with a humor that kept the party laughing continually, said:

"I commenced teaching on Whisky run in the gold mining country fifty-five years ago. And I did as good work there as I ever did—that is in knocking 'em out. That class certainly was a 'tough' bunch." Concluding, he said: "I feel better right now than I have in the past five years and—I don't want to quit."

Principal Gilson gave a short review of his work in the California schools since he first went to work teaching in the Pleasanton school in May, 1869. His talk was replete with interesting allusions to the early history of the city.

EARLY HISTORY TODD.

Principal Meads told of his work for the Oakland schools, of the adoption of his "Chemical Primer" as the standard text in that subject throughout the nation and of his plans for the future. As a further justification for his retirement at this time Meads told the assembled educators:

"Some two years ago in the absence of the pastor of my church, it fell upon me the duty of announcing the death of one of Oakland's best known citizens. This lady had died at the age of 102 years. Many years before in the old medical college on Clay street this lady studied chemistry under me. Now, I thought to myself, Old Man Meads, when a man's pupils reach the age of 102, it is time for him to retire, so that is what I am doing."

OTHER TRIBUTES.

Other tributes to the retiring principals were paid by President Floyd Gray, president of the board of education, and a number of the school principals with whom the veteran educators have been associated.

Attorney Robert Fitzgerald, who studied in Oakland high school under Meads, told of the high regard in which he was held by the students of his day.

"In the numerous ebullitions which have occurred on Oakland school boards during the period of your service, you have escaped without forming 'entangling alliances,'" Fitzgerald said. "You are diplomats and strategists as well as teachers. These men are not retiring while their pupils live—their work will go down for generations to come."

Community singing led by Glenn H. Woods closed the dinner as the guests gave the veterans a rousing "For they are jolly good fellows."

CIVIC LEAGUE TO MEET.

A special meeting of the California Civic League is called by the state president, Mrs. Frank G. Law of Oakland, for tomorrow morning in the assembly room of the Pacific building, San Francisco.

Wooden Building Ordinance Passed

An ordinance allowing the reconstruction of frame buildings above the first story, introduced last week by Commissioner Morse as an amendment to the present building ordinance, was given final passage by the City Council this morning.

Under the old law no improvements could be made on frame buildings in the fire limits excepting on the ground floor. The new law allows the removal of bay windows and other remodeling on frame buildings in the fire zone.

Dentist's Wife Asks Separate Income

Suit for separate maintenance was filed today against Dr. John T. Parr, dentist, by Mrs. Alma Parr, to whom she was married April 10 last. Mrs. Parr says she and her husband separated the day of their marriage, that she has been unable to earn her living because she was weak from a surgical operation and is entirely dependent on him. She asserts that Dr. Parr has an income of $800 a month and asks for $300 a month.

Mrs. Parr was Nella A. Steele before her marriage.

WATER SITUATION DINNER SUBJECT

BERKELEY, June 10.—Called by Mayor Louis Bartlett to discuss the water situation, the proposed lifting of the dollar tax limit and other matters of civic interest, a dinner will be held at 6:30 o'clock this evening at the Hotel Whitecotton. The discussion will be informal in nature with no set program of speeches. The mayor will preside.

According to the mayor's announcement of the dinner the city is confronted with a serious situation in finances for which he declares a solution can only be found in increasing the tax rate. A full report of the water situation to date will also be presented and advice sought for local action.

The dinner will be open to the general public, covers being laid at one dollar a plate.

STATE BANKERS URGE RETURN OF NATIONAL SANITY

LAKE TAHOE, June 10.—The bankers of California and Nevada, meeting here today in annual joint convention received solemn warning that it is the duty of the banking fraternity to assist that government in bringing back to earth once more a normal state of affairs.

The warning came from George W. Peltier, vice-president of the California National Bank of Sacramento and acknowledged spokesman of the federal banking organization.

Warning that there must be an end of waste if the nation is to be preserved, Peltier called for a drastic program of deflation and general [illegible].

Peltier, who is vice-president of the California National Bank of Sacramento, said in part:

Americans are now engaged in a riot of wild spending—they live in an atmosphere of abandon. With business at a high ebb and wages at a level never before dreamed of, the citizens of this country appear to have been seized by a frenzy of extravagance. Money is thrown to the winds for non-essentials; men labor a short time and then cease work, having in a brief period obtained more money than could have been earned by them in weeks of labor in the pre-war days. And so it goes.

FARMERS HELPLESS

Farmers cannot get help and so production along the most essential of all lines is threatened with curtailment; mills and factories call for more and more material, and again production dwindles; transportation is choked; expansion grows and inflation continues. It is indeed a time for serious thought. An end must be brought to the carnival of waste; conditions must be stabilized, the production of essentials increased and [illegible] on essentials decreased.

The federal reserve branch of our government has repeatedly notified us of the dangers of inflation. It has very properly pointed out the troubles we may encounter. An abundance of prosperity has brought us face to face with a situation fraught with difficult and intricate problems—it seems paradoxical, but nevertheless true. The antidote is liquidation.

How may it be accomplished? Who will start the movement? I solemnly charge you now that it is the duty of the banking fraternity [illegible] with the government [illegible] desire to bring back to [illegible] normal condition of our affairs.

DUTY OF BANKERS

Addressing the commercial bankers for a moment, let me suggest that it is necessary to shrink your business, painful as it may sound. Refuse to make capital investment loans to anyone—this kind of a loan now indicates moral weakness. No loans should be made to speculators of any class, more particularly the real estate loan. And then the merchant who [illegible] the bank's money, he sees a great opportunity for making money through buying a large quantity of merchandise and in a season's keeping he anticipates a rise. You must decide in your own bank the difference between essentials and non-essentials.

Interest should be the prevailing rate and there should be no hesitation in adjusting to a higher rate in order to meet the current conditions.

DISCLAIMS PESSIMISM

I am not preaching pessimism, because I have no fear of the future of our country, and in using the word 'inflation' it can be applied only to certain phases of our daily life. Inflation is most decidedly squeezed out of all stocks and bonds.

It cannot be said that governments are inflated when they may be bought on a six per cent interest yield. So therefore the word inflation may be used only with relation to prices of things consumed in living and wages. The evils will continue to exist until supply equals demand.

It will not do to force deflation too rapidly. What we most need is a cool deliberate mind, reasonable judgment and an entire absence of hysteria. Nationally we are unusually strong in resources and we have a federal reserve system well designed and prepared to meet the conditions we are now experiencing—we will work our problems as we meet them, but it will not come in a day—it will be through a concerted action of the American bankers that the changes will begin. It is peculiarly our task—we must point the way and show leadership.

Second Concert By Pupils Is Announced

BERKELEY, June 10.—The music department of the public schools of Berkeley will offer a concert by a fifty-piece orchestra and chorus of 250 voices chosen from the four intermediate high schools tonight in the High school auditorium. Chorus classes of the High school assisted by the High school orchestra will present a program tomorrow night in the same place, concluding the series of three concerts which demonstrate the music work in the school department. The first musical was given on Wednesday night by the High school orchestra.

12 Alameda High Athletes Go South

ALAMEDA, June 10.—Twelve Alameda High school pupils, members of the Alameda High school nine, and substitutes with Physical Director Otto Rittler left this afternoon for San Diego where Saturday afternoon they will battle with the high school of the southern town for the California interscholastic federation championship.

The Alameda youths will be entertained during their stay. They will be given a dinner and theater party tomorrow evening by their opponents of the diamond.

WELFARE WORKERS TO MEET.

Dr. Adelaide Brown of San Francisco will be the speaker before the Public Health Center of Alameda County tonight at Thirty-first and Grove streets. Preceding the address school children, under the direction of the Oakland recreation department, will produce a group of health plays.

The Waterfront

The fourth section of the floating drydock for the Moore Company of Oakland has again been reported. She is 41 miles north of this port, and still bucking headwinds, but managed to gain about 40 miles during the past 24 hours in tow of the tug Storm King. The fifth and last section of the floating dock left Puget Sound yesterday in tow of the tug Hercules.

The wind off Point Reyes yesterday afternoon was blowing from the northeast at thirty miles an hour and was too strong for the power schooner Stockton City, which left here in the forenoon for Shelter Cove, but was compelled to return to port in the afternoon.

The schooner Oakland from Valparaiso for this port, was spoken by the schooner Alvena on June 7 in latitude 40 north and longtitude [illegible] [illegible] steamer Cactus spoke the schooner Fearless on June 8 in latitude 30 20 north, longtitude 179 10 east. She is en route to Honolulu from Newcastle, Australia, with coal. Both craft report all well.

The fifth codfish cargo consisting of 190,000 fish from Southwestern Alaska stations arrived here last evening on the schooner Carolyn Francis, which brings the catch up to almost one and a half million fish since January 1 this year and breaks all previous records. The schooner Luzon also reached port with 650 tons of copra from Papette, being the second copra cargo to arrive here this week.

When the Hercules reaches Oakland with her section of the floating drydock, she will sail again for the Columbia river to tow the first of the Benson's log raft down the coast. There are four rafts to be towed from the Benson's plant and four of them from the Hammond plant this season.

Captain John Leale, who for many years commanded the broad gauge ferry steamers Newark and Berkeley, but during the war was in the Shipping Board department, has tendered his resignation, which takes effect on August 1. Thirty per cent of the shingle mills have stopped operation at Vancouver, B. C., on account of the tendency of prices to drop and they want to get rid of stock on hand. This leaves several thousand men out of work in the camps as well as the mills.

The column of heights gives the elevation of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The numbers are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by the minus sign or dash (—), when the numbers are subtractive from depths given on the chart.

Note—In the above tabulation of tides the daily tides are given in the order of their occurrence, commencing with the early morning tide in the left hand column and the succeeding tides as they occur. On some days but three tides occur, the fourth tide occurring on the following morning.

BERKELEY SCHOOL TAX LIMIT ASKED FOR PAY RAISES

BERKELEY, June 10.—A forty-cent school tax, the limit under the law, will be asked of the City Council by members of the Berkeley Board of Education as a means of raising the salaries of teachers in the college city school department. At the same time the Board of Supervisors will be requested to raise the county school tax from 35 to 45 cents to provide additional funds for meeting the proposed blanket increase of 30 per cent for all teachers in the Berkeley schools.

Where but 21 cents of city money is devoted to school purposes at present, the council will be asked to raise that amount to the 40 cent limit. A conference between members of the Board of Education, headed by Dr. Roy I. Woolsey, and the City Council has been arranged for 10:30 o'clock next Tuesday morning at the City Hall.

The campaign of teachers for increased pay has been indorsed by the Board of Education and a blanket raise of $300 urged to meet the increased cost of living.

Burglar Gets Pretty Trimming

Whipped, He Rolls Down Stairs

Neighbor and Wire Fence Aid

For a time last night a burglar who entered the home of O. R. Morgan, 6025 Lockridge Boulevard, did not know whether he had stepped into a comic strip or a slapstick comedy. All he knew was that all the traditions of his profession were being violated, that his structure of romance and daring was tumbling about his ears and that life was one kick, slam and bang after another. If he hasn't reformed today it's because he can't hold up his hand to take the oath.

Here is what happened:

At an early morning hour the burglar entered Morgan's room and was prowling about with drawn revolver in the accepted fashion when Morgan slammered a heavy right to the jaw. The burglar grunted, dropped his revolver and sat down. Morgan jumped on him.

Reel two shows the burglar missing the top step of the stairs and skidding on his neck and shoulder to the bottom. Morgan two jumps behind and gaining.

At the bottom of the stairs the burglar untied his legs, took his foot out of his hip pocket and gave one terrified look at his pursuer. Then he dove head first through a heavy glass window, leaving several bits of the beauty that is only skin deep clinging to the jagged pane. Morgan executed a flank by the door.

Hearing the noise a neighbor who had seized two dumbbells for protection threw open a window and forth a dumbbell. It bounced off the [illegible] the burglar's ear. A long wail of pain ascended on the night air and the persecuted burglar made another dash for freedom. This time he landed plump in a barb wire fence, a [illegible] and [illegible] him to advance a little ways and then swing back, scratching all the time and deposited him sitting on the argumentative points of a garden rake. The burglar went.

Driven to frenzy the man made one more trial and dove straight through the fence.

Pieces of his clothes are hanging on the barbs this morning.

It was a hard night.

The bride elect is the daughter of Mrs. E. V. Hunt and has a large [illegible]. Oehlmann has business connections in San Francisco and also large land holdings in the Sonoma valley, where he will take his bride to live following their wedding, which will be in [illegible] of July.

Shanghai Women Ask Federation Meeting

SHANGHAI, June 10.—The American Woman's Club of Shanghai will present a request to the General Federation of Women's Clubs in America urging that body to hold its 1922 convention in Shanghai. This request is to be presented at the federation convention at Des Moines, Ia., in June, by Mrs. Charles S. Lobingier, wife of the judge of the United States court for China, who is a former president of the Shanghai American Women's club and who will represent it at the Des Moines meeting.

British exports by weight last year were one-half those of 1913.

Abraham Lincoln was two inches taller than George Washington.

Colorado River Is Still Slowly Rising

CALEXICO, June 10.—President S. Nickerson of the Imperial Irrigation district, said that Saiz levee, second line of defense against the Colorado river flood waters, was getting waterlogged, and he was "distinctly apprehensive."

The top of the Saiz levee was reported from six to twelve inches above the water, with the flood still slowly rising.

EL CENTRO, June 10—The gauge on the Colorado river at Yuma showed a fall of .8 foot in 24 hours. At Mile Post One on Ockerson levee there was a fall of six inches. The Rockwood gate gauge showed a fall of .7 foot. It was reported that the river was still slowly rising at Saiz levee.

AMERICAN LEGION GOSSIP

With four prizes offered for the members who bring in the greatest number of new Legionaires for the post enrollment list, the renewed membership drive of Oakland Post No. 5 of the American Legion is on in full swing and will be continued throughout the month of June, and during a portion of July, by which time it is expected that the membership of the post will have been increased by at least 1,000 new "buddies."

Preparations for the drive were completed at the last post meeting, when it was arranged to district the entire city according to the precinct plan. An organized effort will be made in each precinct, so that every former service man not yet affiliated with some Legion organization will be brought into the star button outfit.

At the conclusion of the campaign for new members the grand windup will take the form of a picnic and field day in which a program of athletics and games will be staged by the athletes of the post under the direction of the athletic committee.

The question of the formation of a second post of the American Legion in Oakland was laid before the membership of Oakland Post No. 5 at its last meeting, with the result that a unanimous vote was registered in favor of placing no opposition in the path of the new body. On the contrary, the new post will be welcomed by the Oakland Post membership and expressions of good will will be sent to the organizers.

When the charter application of the new body was submitted to the State executive committee, the issue was passed back by that body to Oakland Post for an expression as to whether or not there would be any objection to the organization of the new unit. This action by the State headquarters was laid before the local membership last week and a lively debate ensued.

The members who spoke on the issue expressed themselves practically unanimously in favor of placing no obstacle in the way of the organization of the second Oakland Legion unit, taking the stand that such a movement should be recognized and approved if it will bring into the big Legion roll some former service men who are not yet affiliated with any post.

An unusually fine program is being prepared by members of the entertainment committee of Oakland Post No. 5, of the American Legion for the vaudeville show to be given on the night of Tuesday, June 15, in the theater of the municipal auditorium. Aside from the program of entertainment features, dancing and music, the meeting will be devoted to Americanization, and three prominent speakers of the bay cities will address the post membership on the subject as a preliminary to the extensive Americanization campaign to be launched by the post in November.

One of the headline acts in the vaudeville program will be furnished by Lou Cole, the famous cowboy poet and fiddler, who was one of the most popular of the A. E. F. overseas entertainers during the war, when he was known and loved by thousands of soldiers. Cole will offer an original act for the post members.

Another feature act will be provided by Jane [illegible] Teeple, one of the cleverest juvenile impersonators in the bay region, who will appear with Florie May Tyriel in a song and dance specialty, entitled "Sahara." The music for the program and the dance will be supplied by the Oakland Post orchestra of 50 pieces. Members are requested to bring their mothers, sisters, wives and sweethearts.

In addition to the passage of the bonus bill in the House of Representatives some headway has been made with other relief measures for veterans of the World War. The bill providing 1-cent railway fare for wounded and disabled men still in army hospitals has passed the House and Senate. A bill providing for the transfer of Whipple Barracks, New Mexico, from the War epartment to the Public Health Service has passed both houses. This will provide 1500 additional beds for ex-service men undergoing treatment by the Public Health Service, particularly tuberculosis.

The Army Reorganization Bill, providing for the new peace-time army of 280,000 enlisted men and 17,800 officers, has been agreed upon by the House and Senate and awaits approval by President Wilson. Such provisions as the federalization of the National Guard, voluntary military training, and automatic revival of the selective service act on declaration of a war emergency were withdrawn from the bill when the House and Senate conferees deadlocked.

Rewards for the capture of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, draft dodger, now total $4000. Rumors that he had gone to Mexico have been current, while other reports say that he was seen crossing the Ohio river into Kentucky, that he was seen in Boston, and that he was hiding in Washington, D. C.

A. A. Sprague, chairman of the beneficial legislation committee of the American Legion, and Thomas W. Miller, chairman of the national legislative committee, were among the witnesses last week before the special committee of the Senate investigating campaign expenses of presidential candidates.

Renewed efforts are being made by the Bureau of War Risk Insurance and the Public Health Service to induce all former service men who are suffering with acute tuberculosis to enter hospitals.

An informal poll of 58 senators, including 38 Republicans and 20 Democrats, taken early this week, showed 31 opposed to the bonus bill, 18 favorable and 9 who declined to express their opinion.

American Jailed in Villa Munitions Plot

JUAREZ, Mex., June 10.—An American, notorious as a smuggler, was arrested by Mexican authorities here in connection with the alleged smuggling of ammunition to Francisco Villa, the bandit. He later was released.

Mexican authorities announced eight Mexicans also were arrested at various points between here and St. Helena, in the Big Bend district, in connection with what they said was a widespread plot to supply Villa with munitions.

EDITORIAL

Are you interested in securing an appropriate graduation gift for some one of your young friends?

If so, we would suggest either a Waterman Fountain Pen which can be purchased at $2.50, or an Eversharp Pencil at $1.00 and upwards, or one of the new ink pencils at $3.00 and upwards, or a Kodak.

These are all items that young folks appreciate and have use for and if purchased at Bowman's, can be exchanged by the recipient for anything else they might prefer.

A SPLENDID POISON OAK REMEDY

Sold By Our Stores for Years

If you have followed our advertising, you will notice that we very seldom recommend a remedy or a cure.

There are a few articles, however, in our store that we have handled so long and which have proven to be so efficacious, that we recommend them as remedies to our patrons.

For example, Taylor's Poison Oak Lotion. This preparation is an almost infallible preventative of poison oak if placed upon the body before going into a poison oak region and is a great relief when used as a remedy while suffering with poison oak.

We know of nothing any better in this line and advise all of our customers who expect to go into the mountains to take a bottle with them.

Taylor's Poison Oak Remedy also comes in salve form. It will not stain the clothing and is practically odorless. 25c and 50c.

Take along plenty of films. Return any unused rolls to us.

DO YOU WANT A HAND BAG AT A MODERATE PRICE?

You'll Find a Big Assortment at Bowman's

There are other stores where hand bags, vanity boxes, etc., are carried at much higher prices than at Bowman's, and there are stores where extreme novelties are featured to a greater extent, but there is no establishment around San Francisco bay that we know of, carrying a better line of moderately priced merchandise of this character.

We have featured hand bags at moderate prices for so many years that the best manufacturers have learned to depend upon us as an outlet for their better grades of moderately priced bags.

We have never permitted inferior merchandise to be sold in this department and at the same time we have never featured extremely high priced bags that are obtainable for $50 and upwards at other stores.

For example, we have a splendid variety of vanity boxes in the very newest ideas at prices ranging from $7.50 to $30.00.

We have one of the most complete lines of Boston Bags in the West at prices ranging from $3.45 to $20 and we have flat bags in patent and other leathers at prices ranging from $1.45 to $12.00.

AUTO PICNIC KITS

Save Money Here

You have probably seen the automobile picnic kits containing knives, forks, cups, etc., but you may not have known that we carry these in stock.

We have the fitted outfits containing the above named articles at prices ranging from $11.50 to $37.00 and we have the lunch kits containing a vacuum bottle and a sandwich compartment without the dishes, at prices ranging from $4.50 up.

We believe that we can save you money on these items because we purchased our stock some time ago and are selling it at figures based on quotations very much lower than present-day prices.

DO YOU APPRECIATE THE REAL VALUE OF A KODAK?

Anyone Can Take Pictures

If everyone who went on a vacation realized how easy it was to take pictures and appreciated how valuable these pictures would be if taken with care and with a little consideration of conditions, all would own a Kodak.

Do not let anyone tell you that it is difficult to get good pictures.

If you have had no experience in photography it might be well to purchase the simplest kind of a camera, which needs no adjusting and which produces splendid pictures of almost any subject, if taken in a fairly good light.

On the other hand, if you feel able to attempt the more difficult subjects you should get an Eastman Kodak or a Graflex.

We have these Kodaks at all prices and in all sizes, both new and second-hand and will be glad to instruct you in every detail pertaining to their operation.

It would be a good idea to purchase your Kodak now so that when you go upon your trip you will have had sufficient experience with it to know just how to get the best pictures.

Our assortment of photographic appliances is one of the most complete on the coast and we will be glad to suggest to you the proper accessories to purchase in connection with the work you expect to do with your camera.

Be sure to take along plenty of films because you can always return any unused rolls, and be sure to take along flashlight powders so that you can get a few campfire pictures.

ARE ANTS BOTHERING YOU

It's Easy to Keep Them Away

Again we call your attention to our successful method of fighting Argentine Ants.

Argo Ant Poison, if used in the garden as per our instructions, and given a little attention every month or so, will keep the ants out of your house.

This poison is not at all dangerous to have around if used as directed and a 35c bottle will last a long time.

We give one feeder can free with every bottle and for 5c each you can secure extra feeder cans.

It usually takes about 6 or 8 feeder cans for the ordinary garden.

THE IDEAL FACE CREAM FOR THE OUT-OF-DOORS VACATIONER

Bowman's Benzoin Cream

This is the time of year that Bowman's Benzoin Cream is mostly in demand.

This splendid face preparation is probably the most popular article in our stores.

People who have used it buy it repeatedly and claim that as a protection to the complexion it is one of the best creams that they have ever tried.

Bowman's Benzoin Cream is manufactured in our own laboratories, of the finest materials procurable and its popularity is merely a reflection of its most unusual merit.

It should be placed upon the face before taking a long automobile or yachting trip and if used in connection with swimming will avoid sunburn. 25c and 50c.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN A GOOD VANISHING CREAM?

The sale of Bowman's Peroxide Vanishing Cream is increasing so rapidly that its popularity is noticeable to almost everyone in our store.

People come in continually, all day long, and ask for a jar of this splendid vanishing cream.

It is usually put on before applying powder and is of a quality not easy to secure on this market.

MODIFY DRY ACT, EDWARDS' DEMAND

SEAGIRT, N. J., June 10.—Governor Edward I. Edwards, candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, has issued a statement here demanding liberalization of the Volstead act and calling upon "the people of the United States, lawfully and by the constitutional method prescribed, to pass judgment upon the act."

"The Supreme Court has declared the eighteenth amendment to be a part of the constitution and the Volstead act to be its statutory interpretation," read the statement. "That act is open to such amendment as the duly elected representatives of the people may enact.

"No power exists which is paramount to the power of the people expressed at the polls. There alone is sovereignty. Every candidate for Congress, every state and legislative official and the candidates for the presidency itself, will be called upon this coming November to declare their positions unmistakably on the sane and reasonable interpretation of the constitutional amendment, in favor of the permissive use of light wines and beers, each state to determine its regulations under the liberal limitations of a general federal statute.

U.S. TO BE PUT ON WAR SUGAR RATION

Sugar rationing in hotels and restaurants, on the same plan that existed in war time, will go into effect in Oakland and in every city in the country on June 21. The announcement that the restrictions would be applied once more was made today in New York by Armin W. Riley, special assistant to Attorney General Palmer.

The price of sugar has taken a drop, the first decline since the United States entered the war. The decline was announced by the Western Sugar refinery and amounts to $1.30 per hundred. Retailers will now pay $25 per hundred instead of $26.30, but it is said the consumers will not feel the drop until the present $26.30 stock of sugar is exhausted. This drop was predicted last week in The TRIBUNE.

Advices received in San Francisco by Frank B. Connolly of the Retail Grocers' Association, were to the effect the decline was caused by banks withdrawing loans on sugar held by American firms in Cuba. The Western Refinery stated its reduction was due to a reduction in cost on the New York sugar market, which controls the price here.

The Hawaiian Sugar Refinery Company stated as soon as new stocks of the raw product arrive it will make reductions.

Besides writing "Pollyanna," she has produced "Just David," "Dawn," "Oh, Money! Money!" "Short Stories," and, best of all, "Mary Marie," just off the press.

The latter novel will be published complete in The OAKLAND TRIBUNE. Watch for announcement of publication date.

The first two weeks that the camp is open, from June 21 to July 4, will be for boys only; the next two-week period, from July 5 to 19, will be for girls only, and the third period, ending August 2, will be for adults and family groups. A second two-week period for adults, from August 2 to 27, may be added if the demand justifies it.

The leaders who will be in charge of the girls' groups are: Miss Ruth Findlay, Mrs. E. A. Hollington, Miss Olive N. Perks, Mrs. A. S. Kibbe and Miss Anna Ronaldson. Leaders for the boys will be Sam Dougherty, Grover Carlson and Mrs. A. L. Weston, who will have charge of the boys of grammar school age. Society Woman Held For Diamond Thefts

NEW YORK, June 10. — The theft of $18,000 worth of jewelry from the homes of prominent New York society are alleged by police to have been committeed by Mrs. J. C. Gleason, widow of a former Chicago banker, arrested here today. She was arraigned on the specific charge of stealing an $1800 diamond bar pin from the home of Mrs. Chester M. Curry on May 14, and was locked up when she was unable to furnish $15,000 bail.

Mrs. Gleason told the police, they said, that she had lost heavily at poker recently at the homes of society women.

HAD FOLLOWED HIM FOR FIFTEEN YEARS

Engineer Martin Says He Was Much Concerned About Stomach Trouble Before He Got Tanlac—Eats Anything, Now.

W. L. Martin, of 458½ South Main street, Los Angeles, Cal., a locomotive engineer in the yards of the Southern Pacific railroad, is another well-known railroad man who has cause to be glad he tried Tanlac.

"Tanlac has completely relieved me of a case of stomach trouble that has followed me for fifteen years," declared Mr. Martin. "Before I took this medicine I always had a dull heavy feeling like lead in the pit of my stomach, and I often had awful spells when the gas would bloat me up as tight as a drum, almost cutting off my breath. Sharp pains went all through my chest and were so severe at times I could hardly stand it. I couldn't get a good night's sleep and I just felt no good and without energy all the time. These spells got pretty regular and I tried all kinds of medicines to get relief, but I just kept on having them, worse each time, until I became discouraged and down-hearted, for I was afraid I wouldn't be able to hold up much longer.

"Several of my friends told me that Tanlac had helped them, and I heard so much talk about it around the yards that I decided to get a bottle and I commenced to feel better before I finished it. My food tasted better and I noticed that the heavy feeling was leaving my stomach. I kept right on taking Tanlac and now my stomach never troubles me and I just feel fine all the time. I sleep like a log every night and have already gained several pounds in weight. I will always praise Tanlac and I am constantly telling about how it has fixed me up."

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco and Oakland by The Owl Drug Company Stores.—Advertisement.

FRANKIE FARREN DEFEATS JOE MILLER IN SLOW BATTLE

SECOND ROUND PLAY IN TRIBUNE BOWLING TOURNAMENT IS SCHEDULED FOR TONIGHT

TED MEREDITH HANGS SERIES OF WALLOPS ON EARL YOUNG'S CHIN

Farren, Advocate of "Safety First," Fails to Please Cash Customers at the Auditorium

By BOB SHAND.

According to the rules and regulations promulgated by the late lamented Marquis of Queensberry, Frankie Farren defeated Joseph Miller at the auditorium last night, but there were a lot of people in the municipal edifice who would have been tickled had Mr. Miller received a draw for his efforts. Mr. Farren, fresh from his victory over Joe Benjamin, adopted the tactics of Georges Carpentier and played safety first. Georges, you know, realizes it is safer to play the show houses than play with the American heavyweights. All the leading in the fight last night was done by Miller, Farren contenting himself with countering and as a counterer Farren is one of the best little counterers that ever countered.

Miller became peeved when Farren refused to lead and Joe lost his noodle at times and took some unnecessary chances. Leaving himself wide open as he came in he stopped a few eight handers with his pantry entrance and he bled a bit about the mouth, but at no time was he hurt nor did Farren slow him up. Figuring the punches landed Farren had the edge but the guy that starts the fight and shows a willingness to finish it should be entitled to something. Had Miller adopted Farren's tactics and waited for his opponent to lead it would have been a "looking" contest instead of a box fight. Maybe after the glamor of the Benjamin victory wears off Frankie will become a regular little four-rounder again and do his share of the fighting.

Tommy Cello Wins From Joe Leopold

Tommy Cello and Joe King Leopold stepped four flossy rounds with Cello receiving the decision. Leopold took all that Tommy had to offer and kept coming back after more, at the same time shooting out that long left swing for the head, but Cello piled up a big edge on straight boxing points. Some of the customers did not like the decision, one of them being Judge E. J. Kaplan, who thought a draw was about right, but round by round and punch by punch Cello had a margin at the close. However, there is a neat little return match here for the Messrs. Simpson and Gliddon.

Johnny Webber took the play away from Freddie Anderson and won all the way. Webber hooked and jabbed in bewildering fashion and Anderson was at sea most of the time. Webber's sailor pals advised by signals from the corner "Drive him at, Johnny, and then shoot 39." Each number meant a different kind of punch and Johnny never missed a number. Anderson was trying all the time but the tar carried too many guns for him.

Joe Ketchel thought he had something soft in Pickles Martin, but when the smoke of battle cleared away the Martin right hand was in the air while Ketchel was trying to explain why he couldn't hit the San Francisco comedian. Martin bounced around the ring and pulled a lot of the well-known comedy. Ketchel got quite a kick out of Pickles' antics until he awoke to the realization of the fact that the favorite son of Alameda was taking a licking. Then when he did start Mr. Ketchel found Pickles with a lot of stuff in reserve. In fact, Martin did not get real funny until the last round, when he put it on pretty. Pickles won all the way.

Earl Young Knocked Out By Meredith

Earl Young, who was a main eventer only a few brief weeks ago, was knocked down three times by Ted Meredith in the first round and Ted had the "mercy shot" handy when the referee stopped the affair. It was a surprise party for Mr. Young.

Harry Eagles did not appear so Jimmy West, an old favorite, took on Jack Papke and earned a draw. Jimmy adopted his old tactics of hanging on in the first two rounds but when warned that he would be disqualified he took a chance and outslugged the southern battler.

Ed Eames knocked Bobby Ertle down in the second round but Bobby came back strong enough in the last two canto to earn a draw.

Because of the Benny Leonard benefit at the Coliseum next Wednesday night Tommy Simpson will have to show here Thursday. The Elks will hold their 39-year celebration at the auditorium Tuesday, which leaves Thursday the only available evening—unless Tommy sends Broom over with Duffy and tends to business here.

Maxwell Team Will Play Mare Island

VALLEJO, June 10.—On Sunday afternoon the Mare Island Sailors will play the Maxwell Hardware baseball nine of Oakland at the Cantonment diamond. The sailors are practicing [illegible] give the mole city club a great contest.

Seven Stanford Men Will Start At Pasadena

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, June 10.—Seven Stanford track stars will enter the elimination track and field meet at Pasadena the 26th of this month to bid for a place on the American Olympic track squad. They are: E. R. Caughey, shotputter and hammer thrower; H. C. Bihlman, shotputter; Morris Kirksey, sprinter; R. L. Templeton, jumps; W. B. Wells, hurdles; Norman Green, pole vault, John Hanner, javelin.

According to W. Harry Maloney, Stanford coach who just returned from the I. C. A. A. A. A. meet at Philadelphia, none of the Stanford men will be eliminated at the Pasadena meet. He bases his conclusion on the inspection of the eastern track men.

Men who succeed in the trial meet at Pasadena will enter in the final selective contests at Boston on July 16.

Kirksey will undoubtedly be selected on the final Olympic team according to eastern experts, who saw his performances in the heats at Philadelphia. The fact that he withdrew in the finals on account of a tied muscle in no way discredits him with the easterners. He is again in winning form.

R. L. Templeton is a point winner from the Inter-Allied games and took second in the high jump at Philadelphia. His jump of 6 feet 4 and 3-16 inches in the Pacific Coast Conference is the best that has been done in the country this year.

Bihlman and Caughey are both weight men of prominence. Bihlman holds the Stanford-California shotput record. Caughey won the event at the Inter-Allied games.

Norman Green can do better than 12 feet 8 inches in the pole vault. His only rival is Jenne of Washington [illegible] inches of the world's record on the Stanford field on May 17. Hanner has thrown the javelin more than 190 feet, which assures him a place on the Olympic squad according to Coach Maloney. Tuck of Oregon University is the only man who has bettered Hanner's mark this year.

Vallejo Ball Fans Are Supporting a Winning Outfit

Tom Sullivan and J. T. Moroney are giving all their spare time in trying to build up the baseball game at Vallejo, and from the way the attendance is improving with each game, it will not be very long before the Mare Island Shipbuilders will be performing before packed stands each Sunday. Sullivan and Moroney have put together a mighty nifty club considering the scarcity of players. They are not satisfied when they see an ordinary player on the club and always try to replace him with the best.

Baseball fans around Vallejo are going dippy over the pitching of Buttlsbach, the young southpaw, who works for the Shipbuilders. Ballie Wellingham is another promising young husky with that club. With that pair of chuckers, the Shipbuilders are hard for any of the teams around the way to beat. Last Sunday Buttlsbach held the San Francisco Elks to two hits. Follows like Tom Tennant, Lou Kennedy, Gugal and Sullivan were on the Elks club. The kid didn't fear the veterans in the least.

Sullivan has the Shipbuilders booked for the next three Sundays. This Sunday they will meet the Indoor Yacht Club team of San Francisco. The following Sunday they will entertain the California Cotton Millers of Oakland and the Sunday after they meet the San Francisco American Legions.

Next Sunday at Richmond the Elks of that town will be out to entertain the C. L. Best Tractors of San Leandro. [illegible] of the three games already played by these teams. The Elks won the last one and promise to even up and make a fifth and final game necessary.

Anderson Will Box Al Norton Tonight

HARRY GOSSETT WITHDRAWS FAVORITES BEING DEFEATED

With some of the best bowlers in the west scheduled to roll the second night's play in The TRIBUNE diamond medal tournament will be staged at the Maryland alleys tonight.

The boys are heaving individual and collective sighs of relief now that Harry Gossett will not be here for the second round. Harry knocked off Jack Hughes, last year's winner, in the opening night's play last Sunday and was a favorite for the final honors. Now Gossett has been called away and the other pin shooters have the field to themselves.

The favorites were given a fine going over last Sunday, outsiders copping most of the matches, but the experts are on their guard now and are going to take no more chances.

The TRIBUNE tourney is creating tremendous interest. Many bowlers who failed to enter thinking they had no chance to win wish now they had taken a chance since the favorites commenced to fall.

Grammar and High Schools Swimming Meet

Over 500 boy swimmers, representing 19 grammar and the five high schools of Oakland, will meet in the Idora Park pool tomorrow.

The high school championships, under the auspices of the Oakland Athletic League, will be held in the morning, starting promptly at 10 a. m. Teams representing Tech, University, Vocational, Oakland High and Fremont are entered. The high school swimmers have been training faithfully for the past two months and a number of existing records are expected to be smashed. Tech won the championship last year but will have to extend itself to retain the honors tomorrow. The events will be as follows: 50, 75 and relay for 90 and 100 pounders; 75 yard, 100 and relay for boys weighing 110 and 120 pounds; 100, 150 and relay for swimmers in the 130 pound class; 50, 100, 220, 440, relay, 100 yard breast, 100 yard back stroke, diving and plunge for distance in the unlimited weight class. There will also be fancy diving for boys weighing 120 pounds and under. Clarence Street, physical director of Fremont High, is handling the details of the high school meet.

Starting at 2 p. m. more than 400 grammar school swimmers will compete in events for the school championship under the auspices of the Oakland Recreation Department. The distances will range from 25 yards to 100. Diving, plunge for distance and relay races will also be held for each class. The swimmers will be classified according to the following weights—70, 80, 90, 100, 120 pounds, and unlimited.

Swimming Tank Gossip

The mile swim for men in the ocean off Capitola July 11 is the most absorbing topic of interest to the local swimming colony at present outside of the Far Western championships and Olympic games tryouts. The Capitola event is to be an annual affair and application has been made through the Pacific Association to have it granted the Pacific Coast title. If this succeeds, swimmers from all parts of the Pacific Coast will be brought to Capitola for the event.

The Far Western championships will be contested at Neptune Beach June 26 and 27, and the event in the ocean following in less than two weeks will find the distance swimmers in the pink of condition. Many of the local swimmers are now in training for the distance events. Jack Howell of the Oakland Athletic Club having ambitions in the P. A. 500 yards free style at Neptune on June 20, and George Schroth of the same club is training for the 400 meters of the Olympic games tryouts. These two will be formidable contenders for the mile title.

The old rivals, Reginald Goldwater of Stockton, and Stickers Tulloh of the Alameda Neptunes, will find the mile race another chance to vie with each other for supremacy and both are plowing through the water in the distance swims in good time. From Santa Cruz comes word that Cliff Stone of the seaside town is training for the distance events and is negotiating the 440 in 6:15, excellent time. Stone will be a formidable man in the mile swim. In fact, the only swimmer of importance, who admits he is not training for the distance events, is Sandy Goodman, of the Olympic Club, who is contenting himself with the long distance eating contest.

VICTORY OF VERNON OVER SEATTLE KEPT OAKS FROM CELLAR

Biff Schaller and Tex Westerzil Have Good Day Batting Aga inst Ray Kremer

By EDDIE MURPHY.

Del Howard's Oaks did their best to run Clyde Wares' Seattle bunch out of the Pacific Coast league basement yesterday, but Bill Essick's Tigers prevented the locals from placing their hoofs in the cool dark place by running wild on the bases in the south and copping the game from Seattle by an 8 to 0 score. The Oaks suffered their second straight defeat at the hands of Walter McCredie's Portland Beavers and would today be in the basement if Essick's Tigers knew how to behave themselves in the south. The Oaks did a little better yesterday than they did the day before. They lost by a 4 to 3 score to the boys from the north.

Biff Schaller, the Beavers' silent left gardener, must have been celebrating his being a hubby again, as he collected three hits off the shoots of Ray (Wiz) Kremer and two of them helped in beating the Oaks. Texdahl Westerzil, another member of the Beavers, must have been doing some celebrating also, for he banged out a couple of two-baggers that came in innings when Beaver runs were made. Maybe Westerzil is the gent who fixed everything pretty for Schaller. Anyway no matter what the two athletes were celebrating they caused Manager Walter McCredie to give them a couple of pats on the back and tell them what nice fellows they are until they do something that will not help the Beavers.

DEACON ON THE JOB.

Deacon Jones, who is likely to have himself classed among the champion crabbers of the league if he keeps on talking back to the umpires, was on the hill for the Beavers and pitched a nice steady game. The Deacon's teammates gave him a three-run lead by nicking Kremer's delivery freely in the second and third innings.

Biff Schaller singled with one out in the second and he trotted to third base on Koehler's single. Paddy Siglin got the third straight single off Kremer, and Schaller was over the rubber. With one out in the third, Tex Westerzil doubled to left and spiked the pan when Maisel singled to center. Maisel took second on Lane's throw to the plate, but after Cox shot another single in Lane's direction, the little Oak outfielder got even on Maisel by throwing him out at the plate, while Cox kept on to second. Biff Schaller was again on the job and scored Cox with a single to right. Denny Wilie threw Biff out at second.

BILLY HAMILTON COLLECTS.

Some rabid booster for Billy Hamilton offered the kid infielder five bucks to get the first hit off Jones in the third inning and Billy collected by driving a clean hit to left. Kremer was safe on Siglin's boot and both runners advanced on Lane's sacrifice bunt. Hamilton scored on Wilie's infield out.

The Beavers got that run back in the fifth inning when Lew Blue singled and stole second and Tex Westerzil got his second double of the contest. A chance for an Oak rally in the sixth was spoiled when Hack Miller got caught between second and third on Knight's fielder's choice. After Jones disposed of Wilie, Claude Cooper got a single and Hack Miller chased Claude home by hitting a double to right center. Knight hit to Westerzil, the latter making a nice stop. Hack was run down between the bags while Knight made his way to second. Then Spellman went out.

The Oaks came close to tieing the score in the eighth inning. Wilie singled to center and was forced by Cooper, who advanced to second on a passed ball, went to third on Miller's out and scored on Knight's infield hit. Spellman was again up in the pinch and this time fouled to Koehler.

TIGERS FEROCIOUS

The Grove Street Tigers defeated the fast Adeui Jrs. 14 to 5. The stars of the game were Domonico Demaria with five hits out of five trips to the plate, and the pitching of Fairbanks, who fanned twelve, and also the catching of MMossino. The star catches were made by Alfred L. DeBeneddetti and Rowdy Overton. Any team between the ages of 14 and 18 who wants games, write to Alfred DeBenedetti, 595 Forty-fifth street, Oakland.

Danish Relief Fund Aided By Californians

COPENHAGEN, June 10.—American citizens of Danish descent in California and Nevada have sent 104,000 kroner to the relief fund of the Danes in Slesvig, says the Politiken.

GREYHOUND CHATTER

E. F. Panario and J. Coughlin of Sacramento, have sent Shamrock Kid, Mary M, Uncle Hiram, For Glory and Melachrino to the Emeryville track to be raced under the name of the Yo Tambran Kennels.

Manager Smith of the "Hound" track has arranged for hurdle races—the dogs are now being schooled—and if possible will have the first jumping race Saturday, June 12.

When it comes to clowns—Tony Pastor had nothing on Smoky Wild Bell—he is the clown at Emeryville, while his kennel mate, Honor M. is called the "Blitzen."

"Red" Wade has returned from Merced and Modesto, where he went looking for hounds. He reports an enormous demand for dogs with the valley full of scouts.

Tony Dutro, the Broadway tonsorial artist, is raising a hound called "Next."

Demon Klein now wears an owner's badge.

Some of the little four-round boxers will be asked to train at the track and entertain between races.

Steam Roller and Honor M. are expected to clash in the Bernstein handicap Sunday. A new track record may be made.

Newark Wedgewoods Defeat Santa Clara

The Newark Wedgewoods made it two straight from Santa Clara, thus bringing a scheduled three-game series to a close. There was no doubt as to the best team winning, as the Wedgewoods displayed better ball than their opponents in both games. Bud Wales, at short, in the two games handled 16 chances with but one error, while the rest of the faithful Wedges made it a clean sheet.

Shine Silva held the prune boys al-Clara pitched a neat brand for Santa Clara pitched a neat brand of ball, but he had weak spots behind him, Kifer at third making five errors in two games out of seven chances.

The series is over, and although the prune valley lads did not get a chance for a third game they are a good bunch of sports.

Next Sunday the Wedgewoods will play at home, and fellows with a bunch of amateurs playing the ball that Wedgewoods are should be patronized.

RENICIA GETS PITCHER

VALLEJO, June 10.—Pitcher Henry Cardinelli, who played the Mare Island machinists baseball club last season, has been signed to hurl for the Renicia Club for the remainder of the year.

Wool production in the United States increased 15 per cent last year.

Gossip for Baseball Fans

The Tigers kept the Oaks out of the basement yesterday when they trimmed the Seattle gang eight to eight less than that.

Al Demaree, the noted cartoonist, was the victim of the southern maulers.

Demaree draws well. He drew a shut-out yesterday.

The Bees and Seals are fifty-fifty for the leadership of the league, but a San Francisco paper generously places the Bees at the top.

GET OUT THAT SAND BOX, DEL.

Now they say that Ray Kremer is an iron man because he can stand so much punishment.

Tommy Fitzsimmons joins the Oaks tomorrow, hurrah.

Tommy is a tooth extractor and expects to extract some base hits from the old war club.

Foreman Howard wishes J. Cal Ewing would quit dallying with the politicians in Chi and get down to baseball business.

A fan tossed Billy Hamilton $5 for making a single yesterday. Had Sammy Bohne been in the game he would have asked $10 for a double.

Sacramento scored eight runs yesterday, but couldn't win, as the Seraphs made nine.

The low descending sun descended once again without Bill Hodgers trading off Marty McGaffigan for a plug o' chewin'.

Biff Schaller and his wife kissed and made up Tuesday. Biff kissed the apple for three solid blows yesterday. That's what it means to be happy.

Mister De Vormer, the temperamental catcher of the Tigers, was very much in evidence at yesterday's matinee in the south. Two doubles and a single bounced off his bat.

They play baseball in seven Coast League cities, but what the Harvard do they play in Salt Lake? The Seals got twenty-five (25) blows yesterday while the Bees accumulated eighteen (18).

Little Willie Kamm smacked a couple of homers and as many singles in four times up. That's hitting 1000.

Uncle Wiggily Stories

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND WILLIE'S MARBLES.

Once upon a time, as Uncle Wiggily was hopping through the woods, looking for an advanture, he heard, behind a screen of bushes, some voices talking.

"Now it's my turn to shoot!" some one said.

"No, it's mine," another voice answered. "You shot before. I'm going to shoot now, and oh, what a bang I'm going to make!"

"Goodness me sakes alive and some peppermint peanut popcorn!" thought the bunnygentleman. "This talk of shooting and banging must mean there are hunters in the woods; and if there are hunters it is no place for me! I'm going to skip!"

He was just going to hop away when he heard another voice saying.

"Here comes Willie Flufftail, the lamb boy. Let's asks him to play marbles!"

I—I guess I'll go take a walk with Uncle Wiggily

"If whoever was talking as a friend of Willie Flufftail, the lamb brother of Dottie, they must be friends of mine," thought the bunny uncle. "I guess it's safe for me to stay."

So he peeked over the top of the bushes and there he saw Sammie Littletail, the rabbit; Johnnie and Billie Bushytail, the squirrels, and Jackie and Peetie Bow Wow, the puppy dogs boys playing a game of marbles. And, along the path through the woods, was coming Willie Flufftail, the little boy lamb.

"Come on, play marbles!" chattered Billie Bushytail.

"Oh, I don't want to," slowly answered Willie and Uncle Wiggily, who stepped from behind the bush just then, thought that Willie spoke sadly.

"Why don't you want to play marbles?" barked Jackie Bow Wow.

"Oh,—just because!" bleated Willie, bashful like.

"Are you afraid we'll beat you?" Sammie wanted to know. "We're only playing for fun! Come on!"

"No," answered Willie, jiggling his tail from side to side. "I—I guess I'll go take a walk with Uncle Wiggily! May I?" he asked the bunny rabbit gentleman politely. "That is, unless you want to play marbles," he added.

"Oh, bless your big woolly tail, no!" laughed Uncle Wiggily. "I am so stiff from my rheumatism that I couldn't stoop over to shoot an agate. But I'll go for a walk in the woods with you, Willie, and we may have an adventure."

"Maybe you'll play marbles with us some other day, Willie," called Johnnie, the squirrel, as the boy lamb started off with Uncle Wiggily.

"Maybe," bleated Willie. Then for a time he walked along with the rabbit gentleman. Uncle Wiggily was wondering what sort of an adventure he would have, and then he suddenly thought of something else.

"Tell me, Willie," he spoke, "was it because you didn't have any marbles that you didn't want to play with the other animals boys?"

"That was the reason, yes, Uncle Wiggily," answered Willie. "I asked my mother for some money to buy marbles, but she said she didn't have any just now. But I don't mind. It's fun to walk in the woods with you."

"I'm glad you think so," said the bunny. "And I believe I know—" And then, all of a sudden, Uncle Wiggily slipped and would have fallen only that Willie caught him.

"What happened?" asked the lamb boy.

"Why, I stepped on something round," and it rolled from under my paw and tripped me," answered the rabbit. "There they arefl a lot of round brown things on the ground"

"Why—why—they're marbles!" joyfully bleated Willie. "Nice, round brown marbles, and I can fill my pockets and have a game with the boys, and he began gathering up the round objects.

"They are not exactly marblec," said Uncle Wiggly with a smile. "But they will do just as well. They are round, hard acorns. Take as many as you like, Willie"

So the lamb boy filled his pockets with the round, hard acorns, to go back and play with his friends And, As he and Uncle Wiggily were walking along, all of a quickness, out from behind a bush jumped the bad old Skeezicks.

"I want souse!" howled the bay chap

"Oh, you do, eh?" Well he threw some of his round, hard marble acorns at the Pip, taking him on the end of his soft and tenuous nose, so the Pip was glad enough to run away and not hurt Uncle Wiggily at all And Willie had lots of fun with the rest of his acorn marbles

Motorcycle Riders Will Have Gypsy Tour to Bonita

An interesting future event for those who ride motorcycles is the National Gypsy Tour, to be held this year June 20, at Bonita Park.

It is expected to be one of the largest gatherings of motorcycles ever held on a run of this kind. Five thousand invitations have been sent out. The event takes place once a year and motorcycles all over the United States join together and go to some destination where they hold a picnic and barbecue. Music for dancing is provided; other special events and stunts are always a feature at the picnic.

The different makes of machines will meet at their respective dealers' stores at 8 a. m. the morning of the picnic, and from there will proceed to the park.

RODEO RALLIES IN NINTH.

Rodeo defeated the Goodrich Rubber Co. in a hard fought game, Goodrichans leading 3 to 1 up to the 9th inning, when the Rodeo boys came back strong, making 3 runs, which won the game. The features were the hitting and base stealing of F. Faria and Washo's big hit, which won the game.

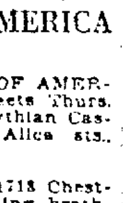
SING HERBS CURE ALL KINDS OF SKIN ILLS



Skin diseases come from the secretion of poisons by organs of the body which are functioning improperly and the carrying of these poisons into the system by the blood. Sing Herbs cure all skin disease by eliminating the poisons from the blood and restoring the organs to a normal condition, by spurring sluggish ones into action and "toning down" those that are overactive.

OAKLAND HAZARD FIRE AIDS ASKED BY UNDERWRITERS

Recommendations of changes in the Oakland water distribution system and in the fire department methods are made by the national board of fire underwriters in a report recently completed to supersede that of 1919. Generally the report shows that an improvement in the city's water supply and fire fighting equipment has taken place.

"The average annual number of fires in Oakland for the last five years was 432, with an average loss of $431, a low figure. Based on an average population of 206,000 the average annual number of fires per 1000 population was 2.09 and the average loss per capita was 90 cents, both low figures.

"No agreement exists between the water company and city regarding the amount of fire protection to be supplied and reasonable protection is not furnished to many parts of the city," says the report. "Condition of the pumping plants is found good, but sufficient pressure in some sections is not furnished owing to the small size of the mains."

Of the fire department the report says, in part:

"The supervision and organization of the department, and methods and appointment and promotion of members under civil service are satisfactory, but the tenure of office of the chief is not secure. There are sufficient engine and hose companies in service for the protection of the city, but except for the principal mercantile district, companies are not generally well located and hose companies are in service where engines are needed.

"A fire-boat to operate principally in Oakland harbor would add materially to the protection afforded manufacturing plants. The merit and demerit system is an excellent aid to maintaining discipline, but should not be used to the exclusion of other means; a lack of strict enforcement of rules was noted. Response to box alarms is deficient in the principal mercantile and other high-value districts, but is sufficient in other districts; that for telephone and other still alarms is decidedly deficient in all districts; sufficient attention has not been given to provision for moving in companies to cover unprotected districts."

Theft of Woodson Cocaine From Police Stirs Officials

What is admitted by Chief of Police J. F. Lynch to be the latest thing in "inside jobs" has developed within the portals of the inspector's bureau of the Oakland police department with the mysterious disappearance of five bottles of cocaine, valued at $1000. When it came to light yesterday during the murder trial of Ollie Woodson before Judge Lincoln S. Church that five of the eight bottles of cocaine, which had been in the custody of the police department as evidence, were missing from the satchel in which they had been [illegible] contamination reigned in the inspectors' bureau.

The discovery was made yesterday when the bag containing the cocaine was produced in court as evidence. Five of the eight bottles were missing. A receipt given to attendants at the emergency hospital by Inspector William Emigh of the police department was produced to show that the eight bottles of narcotics were turned over to him on December 15. Emigh said he turned the bag containing the eight bottles over to Night Captain of Inspectors James T. Drew. Drew testified that he turned the bag and its contents over to Captain of Inspectors Walter J. Petersen, when the latter relieved him the next morning. No check was made of the contents at that time, nor since.

On March 22, when Captain Petersen relinquished his office, the bag was turned over to the property clerk. Captain Drew stated that at that time he noticed that five of the bottles were missing.

"The bag was turned over to the property clerk just as it came to me," sand Captain Petersen today. "I did [illegible] anything was missing, it was taken before it reached my hands."

Chief of Police Lynch started an official investigation this morning.

"It seems to be a pretty state of affairs when things turn up missing right in the inner citadel of our detective bureau," he said in commenting on the mystery. "Of course it will necessitate an investigation which I hope will clear it up to the satisfaction of everyone concerned. In the meantime, it seems to be a new thing in the line of "inside jobs."

LIVESTOCK SHOW IN OAKLAND URGED

An opportunity for Oakland to become the permanent livestock center of California and eventually of the entire Pacific coast, is being held out by the leading cattle men of the state.

Pointing out the fact that a livestock exposition not only brings to the city in which it is held the representatives of a business in which $650,000,000 is invested in California but represents a decided impetus toward an improved country life and an awakened interest in agriculture at a time when that awakening is most needed, Daniel J. Stollery, secretary of the California Cattlemen's Association, is in Oakland placing the matter before the business and professional men. A meeting of a number of those interested will be held at Hotel Oakland this evening.

Behind the movement is the University of California and many of the leading farm authorities of the state. It is felt that the auditorium, with the vacant area surrounding it, affords an ideal site and the cattlemen selected Oakland with this in view. In San Francisco where the exposition was held a year ago, it was necessary to walk a half mile from the end of the car line, and after a long ride on the car. No adequate site could be found in that city. As a result San Francisco support is being given to the plan to bring the show to Oakland.

"All we need is a little Oakland enthusiasm and understanding of something that is greater than any large factory that could be brought to the city," said Stollery. "The exposition means making Oakland the center of livestock and agricultural interest.

"I will predict that once established here the city will not allow it to leave and that the growth of the show will be so marked and so rapid that it will become one of the greatest in the country."

2 HOMES LOOTED OF CASH, CLOTHING

A burglar gang operating in Oakland and Piedmont last night and yesterday afternoon made two rich hauls when they entered the home of Howard Bray, 5460 Carlton street and the home of G. V. De Tomas, 221 El Cerrito avenue, Piedmont.

Returning home from a drive Bray found the house ransacked. A complete list of the articles taken has not yet been compiled, but a large quantity of clothing, jewelry and $6 in silver were taken.

Daylight marauders yesterday afternoon looted the De Tomas home of valuables approximating $500, according to a check made of the loss last night by the Piedmont police.

A careful police investigation of both "jobs" has disclosed finger prints and other clews which the police say will be a material aid in the running to earth of the burglar gang.

CALIFORNIA CITIES SHOW AMAZING GROWTH IN DECADE

Some surprising population gains for Pasadena, Fresno and Stockton and increases close to the figures predicted for San Francisco and Los Angeles have been revealed with the official announcement of census returns. The figures are:

San Francisco, 508,110.
Los Angeles, 575,480.
Pasadena, 45,334.
Fresno, 44,616.
Stockton, 40,296.

Increases — San Francisco, 91,498 or 21.9 per cent; Los Angeles, 256,282 or 80.3 per cent; Pasadena, 15,043 or 49.7 per cent; Fresno, 19,724 or 79.2 per cent; Stockton, 17,043 or 73.3 per cent.

The figures mean that the San Francisco bay community now has a population of almost a million, or 824,368, and that the next census will see the million mark topped. They boost Los Angeles from seventeenth position to eleventh and make it the largest city, as regards area, in the world.

LOS ANGELES GROWTH

In the last ten years Los Angeles has annexed every town and village within range of a half day's ride, including San Pedro, Wilmington, Hollywood, most of the San Fernando valley and a shoe string more than twenty miles long running to Los Angeles harbor.

At some points the city is forty miles in width. Determination of Los Angeles to annex its neighbors and the willingness of the neighbors to be annexed accounts for the growth of the city.

The San Francisco area is restricted to 46.6 square miles and San Franciscans also point out the fact that 40,000 or more persons who work daily in that city live in the suburbs not within the city.

40,000 EXTRAS

Francis J. Mannix, supervisor of the census for San Francisco, has given as an added population not counted the 40,000 persons who spend a part of the year in the hotels and apartment houses but who have their homes elsewhere.

"Lack of new industries," said Mannix, "also has its effect in holding us from more rapid growth. The offices and office forces are here but the better rail facilities in Oakland and elsewhere, and the avoidance of the bay haul, operate to prevent choice of San Francisco for the plants elsewhere."

The Fresno and Stockton growths put those cities well into the 25,000 to 100,000 class and are among the most healthy shown in the country.

LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—The Los Angeles census was padded with the names of tourists and visitors, for the San Francisco district, said today.

Mannix declared that he had received information from Washington that the government had repeatedly warned Los Angeles against enumerating non-residents.

San Francisco passed up 220,000 persons she might have added to her population had she used the Los Angeles tactics, Mannix said.

REDS MAY SEIZE PERSIAN CAPITAL

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

PARIS, June 10.—The Bolsheviki are rapidly extending their operations in Persia, according to advices received by the French foreign office today. Teheran, the capital, is in danger of falling in the hands of the Bolsheviki in two or three days, it is declared. The Persian government is organizing resistance.

The British, the advices state, have retired to Manjil under Bolsheviki pressure.

A Russian Soviet wireless message received yesterday declared that a provisional government had been formed in Resht by the revolutionary leader Mirza Kutchuk, and that the British were hurriedly retreating toward Bagdad, having abandoned Resht without fighting. The British Indian troops were declared in this message to be opposed to fighting against the Persian revolutionists.

The Duo Art Enables You to Play and Hear Others Play

Pianos are bought for two things; to play and to hear played. The Duo-Art provides these two things as no other piano can provide them. The Duo-Art is always a piano of fine tone, responsive action and great durability.

Aside from its keyboard for regular hand-playing, the Pianola action it contains enables anybody to play it. Even those who do not know a note of music can play dances, popular songs, hymns, old favorite melodies and even the greatest classical selections perfectly and with wonderful expression.

Thus the Duo-Art allows anyone to make music himself and in this way experience one of music's greatest fascinations.

As for hearing it played, the Duo-Art does something never possible before.

It produces hundreds of selections played by the world's greatest pianists, exactly as they played them. With the aid of the wonderful artists' Record-Rolls, the Duo-Art plays for you the world's most inspiring piano music with the individual artistry of the pianist who made the record shining through each phrase. It enables you to hear Paderewski, Hofmann, Gabrilowitsch, Bauer, Grainger, Ganz, Novaes and dozens of other famous artists, as well as the best players of dance and popular music, right in your own home and as often as you desire.
